I'M LOOKING FOR A BEAUTIFUL & THINKING PERSON
Who displaces some selfish attitude in favor of doing things to make a better world. Making people happy & feeling truth & love. I'm a nature freak. Like to do short hikes, observe local landscapes (sometimes make small improvements). I'm simple minded, but try to simplify & understand some complications. Jerry Chase 509-828-5770 Spangle

I LIVE IN SPANGLE
Trying to find occasional low cost overlight lodging on some days when I "overextend" my energy in Spokane; trying to avoid late night trips back to Spangle. I'm not a kook. I'm an older man who tries to improve landscapes wherever I go. People's park, other parks, road sides, etc. I can do small payments or work out the rent. I'm only looking for an occasional, modest sleeping area. I'm good conversationalist with only good intention. Long term Spokane resident. Jerry Chase 509-828-5770

YOUR CONNECTION TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Recent Updates...

Spokane Valley City Council - April 4, 2023

Starting with the (April 4th) meeting, Spokane Valley City Council has relocated to CenterPlace Regional Event Center (2426 N. Discovery Place, Spokane Valley) to accommodate repair and construction work on Council Chambers at City Hall. Contractors anticipate that work and resultant impacts to Council Chambers may last through year end.

Options for citizens to attend and participate in public meetings will remain the same, only the venue will change. In-person meetings will take place in the Great Room at CenterPlace, located at 2426 North Discovery Place in Spokane Valley. Remote participation is available through Zoom, and council meetings will be livestreamed and archived on the City SVTV Web-Channel and aired live on Xfinity cable channel 14. More information and links to Zoom and viewing options are available at www.SpokaneValley.org/SVTV.

This Study Session commenced with a motion to approve Resolution 23-005, business continuing from Council's March 23rd meeting. The Oaks Education Association has requested the vacation of 6,970 square feet of public right-of-way in the alignment for Glenview Circle located south of and adjacent to 22nd Avenue. The proposed vacation is approximately 315 feet east of Sunview Circle. This leg of Glenview remains unbuilt and does not extend further south. No utilities are located within the vacated right-of-way. The right-of-way is adjacent to two properties, both of which are owned by the Oaks Education Association. The motion to approve Resolution 23-005 setting April 27th as the date for the public hearing before the Planning Commission was unanimous.

On September 20th, 2022, Spokane Valley City Council adopted Ordinance 22-016, establishing a Spokane Valley Tourism Promotion Area (TPA).

Prior to that, on October 26th, 2020, Council approved Resolution No. 21-008 which served as a formal notice of the City's withdrawal from its participation in Spokane County's Regional Tourism Promotion Area (TPA) effective December 31, 2022.

With the withdrawal from the County's TPA, on September 20th, 2022, Council adopted Ordinance 22-016 establishing a citywide TPA which became effective January 1, 2023. The City received authorization for the TPA to collect lodging charges to be used exclusively for tourism promotion. On that same date, the Spokane Valley Hotel Commission (Commission) was established.

On January 30th, 2023, the Commission held its first meeting, electing Grant Guinn as its Chair. It proceeded to purchase the VisitSpokaneValley.com domain for $10,000 along with seven other "Valley" specific domains that Visit Spokane owned. Requests for proposals have been sent out to develop a spring digital marketing campaign that will begin later this month and continue for 6-8 weeks. The campaign will use video streaming in the Seattle region, western Montana, and north into Canada. The goal is to promote the City as a great location to come, stay for a weekend, and enjoy all the City's attractions.

The City's Parks and Recreation Department presented an update on its 2023 recreation program offerings. The spring and summer seasons offer numerous programs and events to create affordable activities for youth and adults. Here's a brief list of those programs:

- Arbor Day Celebration, Friday, April 28th, 10am-

2pm, CenterPlace West Lawn Plaza.

- Healthy Kids Day, Friday, June 9th, 5:30-7:30pm, Valley YMCA.
- Summer Park & Meal Program, June 20-August 10, Edgcliff, 11:00-11:30; Terrace View, 11:15-11:45; Valley Mission, 11:30-12:00.
- Summer Day Camp, June 20-August 25, Ages 6-12, Weekly Field trips, Registration begins April 3rd.
- Outdoor Movies at Mirabeau Meadows, Friday July 28th, Friday, August 11th; movies begin at sunset.
- Youth Sports; soccer, basketball, tennis volleyball, baseball, flag football, track & field, cheering.
- Sand Volleyball at Brown's Park
- Western Dance, at Sullivan Park, 66th Annual Summer Square Dance Festival & Salmon BBQ, August 25-28.
- Radio Controlled Car Club of Spokane (RCCS). Located at Sullivan Park. Open to the public.

This is only a partial list of activities and events. Aquatics listings and events will be presented in May. For complete information please call 509-720-5200 or visit www.spokanevalley.org.

City Hall is open for business during normal business hours. City Council meetings are held in the Great Room at CenterPlace until further notice. DOG OF THE WEEK

Meet Eve! This chatty Husky will have lively conversations with you every day. She knows what she likes and will settle for nothing less, so she can get snappy during petting and when her belly is touched (even when she offered her belly) Eve needs to be in an understanding home with no kids. Eve did well with cats in one of our cat introductions, But she is not a fan of energetic dogs.

OPERATION DOG TAG

OperationDogTag.org

About Lexy.

Let me tell you about my dog.

My dog is there.

She is there every night when I try to sleep. She is there when the pain keeps me awake. She is there when things are the hardest. She is there when I have things that try and break me.

She is there every morning to greet me. She is there to help me feel safe. She is there to help take the pain away. She is there to keep me grounded and focused.

She is there for me.

I really don't want to share my stories. I have good ones and bad ones like others that have laced up their combat boots. But I will say that having my dog has been one of the best things for me since coming home. Especially when family doesn't understand and there isn't a way for them to. When the people that you served with are busy trying to get their own lives together and you don't want to be a burden to them. My hairball battle buddy is there for me, and one can be there for you too.

To those of you that find yourself struggling a little more than you feel that you should. To those of you that feel like you have tried everything. To those of you that could use a little more help. Just reach out to Joe at Operation Dog Tag, because a service dog will become your new best friend and can save your life.

In the last few weeks I've spent time with Joe training my dog to be my service dog. During this short time our bond has gotten stronger tenfold. I have been able to focus more, and the training has been good for both of us. -Bo

Dave Johnson
"The Outdoor Insider"

I only saw one day last week when I could plan a fishing trip and not risk getting blown off. Thursday was that day, so I got a couple of fishing buddies to try lakes that are east of Ritzville.

I met Mike McKee and Joe Moriarty at the Schrag Rest Area on I-90 on Thursday morning. After loading my gear into Mike's truck, we headed east. All of us admitted that we had hardly slept at all the night before. We were all excited about the day ahead of us. We were going to be fishing Sprague Lake. Mike for the first time, I had not for at least seven years and Joe over 12 years ago. Sprague has a reputation for producing good catches of large rainbow trout, and we had boxes and boxes full of crank baits to try out. We launched on the south shore, just below the island, and headed down the lake.

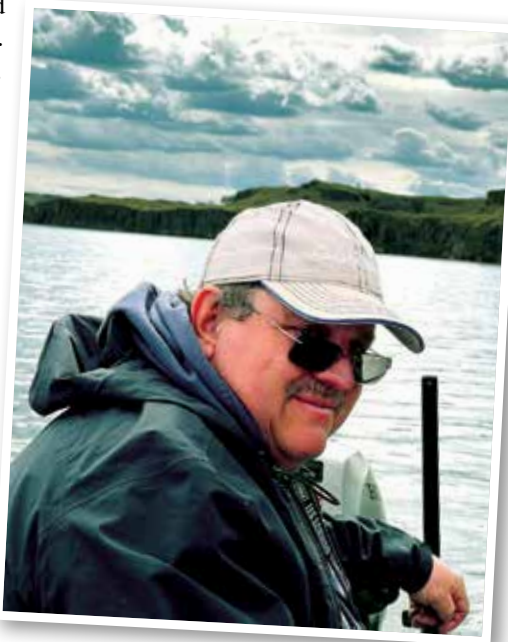

It took a while before we found water over 12 feet deep, and we began testing a variety of plugs. In spite of our enthusiasm about our choices, the trout pretty much ignored our offerings. We really weren't marking many fishing and the water was colored a dark brown. Visibility was maybe a foot, and that didn't help. We did get several hits without hooking up until Mike finally landed a trout of maybe a foot long. Oh well, so much for our Sprague Lake adventure, but the day wasn't over. We pulled the boat and headed south for Rock Lake with high hopes for better luck.

I want to try Sprague Lake again, when the water conditions improve, and the water warms up. This is a shallow lake so it shouldn't take long. When it gets too warm for good trout fishing I can always fish for crappie and bluegill, which are abundant in Sprague.

Although the three of us had a disappointing morning on Sprague Lake, We had the weather window we wanted and had the moon in our favor. The water conditions weren't so favorable, but we stuck with it until about 2 o'clock and then left to try Rock Lake. None of us had ever been to Rock Lake but had heard of the very good fishing for rainbow and particularly brown trout. Some say the next state record for brown trout could come from this lake. Rock Lake is the biggest natural lake in Eastern Washington, but access is limited. We found a good number of anglers fishing from shore at the launch area. One angler showed us a rainbow of about 18 inches, and another landed a 15 inch rainbow while we prepared to launch.

Mike had brought his drift boat knowing that he wouldn't be able to launch his large Hughes Craft at Rock Lake. The launch is on a rock shelf that drops off sharply. I had inspected this launch a couple of years ago and decided I didn't want to try and put my 20 foot Smoker Craft into the water here. I could imagine that my boat tires would fall off the end and I would be in trouble. I had been warned that there are hazards to watch for, and we saw depths of over 80 feet abruptly change to less than 10 feet. This occurred while trolling up the north and south shores of the lake. It will take a while to learn this lake. The best action was had by anglers that fished the very top end of the lake, and we didn't get that far. We tried a variety of crank baits and got several good hits, but once again we only had one fish to show for our efforts. I will plan another trip to Rock Lake. It may take a little time to get this one dialed in. I expect that both Sprague and Rock lakes will fish better in the fall. This week's photo is of Mike at the helm of his drift boat.

The weather has really warmed up and there are lots of sunny days in the forecast. There are also some windy days, which is typical in the spring in our region. You have to carefully check the weather sites to choose a day that will allow you to fish and not get blown off the water. The month of April is here and there are some events you will want to plan for.

The first one is the Triple Fish Challenge on Banks Lake. It is scheduled for April 14th through the 16th. New this year, on Friday the 14th organizers are inviting families to come to Coulee Playland where the kids can catch a fish at a trout pond and test their skill at a casting contest. Those who want to learn more about the Triple Fish Challenge can log onto www.reelrecreation.com to get all the details. On Saturday April 22nd the Kids Fishing Day at the Pit Pond in Rock Island will be happening. For over 20 years families have gathered at this Juveniles only fishing pond for a morning of fishing and enjoy hot dogs and other treats provided by volunteers from the City of Rock Island.

I got a couple of postcards in the mail this week from the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife. The cards were a reminder that catch record cards need to be sent to the department by the end of this month. The information these cards provide are used to help manage anadromous fisheries throughout the state, and it is important to send them in. If you didn't get a reminder card and have a catch record card you can send it to: WDFW CRC Unit, P.O. Box 43142, Olympia, WA 98504-3142. Be sure you include all the catch record cards that you have logged catches on, even if you didn't catch anything.

I have been looking at webcams where I can find them that show the conditions at different lakes around the region. There are some lakes I like to fish in the early spring and many of them are still covered with ice. Fish Lake near Lake Wenatchee is a good example. I have lots of photos of fishing this lake in March, but it still looks like winter there. Anglers are getting out on Billy Clapp for trout and there are even some walleye being caught on Banks and Potholes Reservoir.

April GARDENING TIPS

Master Gardeners of Spokane County

GARDEN FAIR PLANT SALE

April 28-29, 9am-2pm at 222 N Havana, Spokane (just south of the fairgrounds). There will be THOUSANDS of great ornamental & vegetable plants & garden product vendors. The Plant Clinic will also be open. (By Appointment Only)

DANDELIONS

Dandelions are a sure sign of spring. They are an important early food source for the beneficials & pollinators that are returning to our area. If you need to control them, wait until other flowers are blooming.

ROSES

This winter was hard on roses. There are lots of blackened canes this year. Cut back blackened canes into the green portion of the cane. Move mulch away from the plants.

FROST DATE

Spring weather makes us want to get outside, but it can be unpredictable. Snow one day, 60 degrees the next. Remember that the average frost date in this area is May 15.

WEEKLY Horoscopes for April 7 - 13

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

Aries, your emotions may cloud your judgement in the days to come. It's better to seek the advice of a third party who can guide you without the added drama.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

Messages from the universe could come across as confusing or vague, Taurus. You might need someone with cosmic intuition to help you sort out what is going on.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21

A stagnant energy has been surrounding you lately, Gemini. Fortunately, you are able to brush that away soon enough and feel rejuvenated.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22

Cancer, if you haven't devoted enough time lately to taking care of yourself you might awaken this week with a foggy head. Take care of yourself.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23

Responsibilities could have you feeling overburdened, Leo. The trick is to ask others to lighten your load. There are bound to be several volunteers willing to lend a hand.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, try not to compare yourself to others this week. Everyone is unique, with his or her own strengths and weaknesses. An unfair comparison could dampen your spirits.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

You might find it challenging to articulate your feelings to a romantic partner, Libra. If you stumble over saying the words, why not write them down, instead?

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

Sometimes your pragmatic side gets into a tussle with your optimism, Scorpio. Being a realist doesn't have to mean you give up hope. There are many things that can go your way.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, while you may feel like sleeping the week away, awaken to the possibilities before you. Numerous opportunities await, so answer the door when they knock.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

It is alright to feel uncertain about what the heart wants, Capricorn. Not everyone has things all figured out. Ponder your likes and dislikes to determine your path.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, messy work and small mistakes can sabotage all of your hard work thus far. Buckle down and focus on the details. Have someone check that everything is perfect.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20

People around you may be more temperamental than usual, Pisces. Avoid offering any unsolicited advice until things quiet down

BUYER PREPARATION

Most buyers in this information-age seem to be prepared in terms of knowing what inventory is out there on the market because of the quick and easy availability of information, but most are ill prepared when it comes to knowing whether they actually qualify to purchase any of the homes they have been eyeing for months on the internet.

The vast majority of these buyers finally realize that they now require some assistance in this stage of their search. But once they connect with a real estate professional, they may realize that they have skipped the most important step in that process, that of loan qualification. "Show me the money!" will be the first question an experienced professional will ask the buyer. "Where is the money coming from? Do you have any money saved up? Do you need bank financing and have you made that contact? What price range do you qualify for and what type of loan will you be using?" This barrage of questioning may seem too personal and too intense for some just starting out, but these questions must be answered prior to beginning your real search.

"I've already found a couple of houses that I'd like to look at today," says the unprepared buyer. At this point in the conversation you can expect the experienced professional to delay the request for taxi service and property tours until you have proven that you even qualify for such a purchase.

If you are a potential new buyer and are reading this article, you can put yourself ahead of the average buyer by doing the financial preparation well ahead of time. Talk to an experienced loan officer who will take the pulse of your financial status in order to pre-qualify you for the purchase that will suit your current financial ability. That may not mean that it will qualify you for the purchase that will suit your wish list but it will certainly give you the ability to be realistic once you start searching in the category that fits your actual means.

The loan officer will be happy to provide you with a pre-qualification letter documenting this first vital step, which will be a welcomed by your Realtor® who will now enthusiastically shuttle you to see available homes you actually qualify to purchase. Also, if you want your broker's full attention, don't be reluctant about signing a Buyers Representation Agreement guaranteeing they will get paid.
