Dave Jayne
"The Outdoor Insider"

This was a Banks Lake week for me. Fishing had been so good I just kept going and going and kept catching fish. Like all good things, seems they have to come to an end. My luck finally ran out last Sunday.

I was confident about catching walleye on Banks Lake. I was vacuum sealing a bunch of walleye and my wife asked me set some aside for dinner on Sunday. I told her that we would be dining on fresh walleye and put everything in the freezer. I made a rest stop at Coulee City, and someone approached me. He said he had been fishing Banks every day and had a great time—until Saturday. Then the fish disappeared. No one was catching anything. He said he talked to someone who had a few on Barker Flats. So, when I met Dennis and Monica Beich and launched at Northrup that's where we went. We got nothing there. We did get some bites on the hump off Steamboat and that was it. We tried different spots that had produced for us all the way down the lake to below the campground at Million Dollar Mile and got nothing. We made one stop in Poplar Bay on the way back and talked some anglers that said they had three fish for the day. Slow isn't the word I would use for the action on Banks. It's like the walleye had just disappeared. Shucks.

Walleye fishing was so good at Banks Lake on Tuesday that I talked my friend James Lebow into going again on Thursday. I wanted to fish crankbaits in the Million Dollar Mile section of the lake, and we launched the boat right there. We ran out to about 20 feet of water and were into fish right away. We ended up running the largest Flicker Shads and Bandits I had. We were dealing with a pretty good breeze but were able to troll from just below Rosebush all the way down the point, and back. There weren't many other boats out there and we watched the people in one boat we passed getting fish, too. We had a few small fish, but most of them were 15 to 20 inches. We did release one that was 25 inches long. We started with perch patterns and eventually were using anything that would dive as deep as 17 feet. When we wandered into 30 feet of water we marked a ton of fish. It would be worth pulling bottom bouncers at this depth right now. I think Banks is fishing the best it has in about three years. It's a lot of fun. This week's photo is of the 25-inch walleye we released.

After a dismal performance on Moses Lake on my part, I wanted to get Dennis Beich back out on the water, and this time to Banks Lake, which was his original idea. We headed up there Tuesday and I chose to start our day on the sand flats just down lake of Steamboat Rock. It turned out to be a good choice. We were into walleye immediately. We were getting them mostly in 18 to 24 feet of water, on the Sparkly Green or Blue and Silver Smile Blades on Slow Death hooks. This was great fun, but the fish were all small. When we had one limit of keepers we pulled our gear and headed to the Million Dollar Mile area. We started just below Rose Bush and were marking good numbers of walleye. The bite wasn't as hot as it was at Steamboat, but we were landing more "hammer handles" and got one that was 20 inches. My bow mount, which had been working hard all morning, started to run out of juice, so I said, Heck, let's put out some crankbaits. We got two of our nicer fish of the day pulling Flicker Shads. My first trip to Banks was a good one!

Washington's Free Fishing Weekend – the annual event when anglers across the state can fish without a license – will have a new look in 2023. In past years, nearly any species of fish or shellfish open for harvest could be harvested without a license during Free Fishing Weekend. Beginning this year, any fish requiring a catch record card (including sturgeon, salmon, steelhead, and halibut) and all shellfish will still require a license on Free Fishing Weekend. All other species open for harvest can still be harvested without a license.

"Free Fishing Weekend can't be as 'free' as it has been in the past," said Kirt Hughes, Fish Management Division manager with the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW). "This event is still a great opportunity to be out on the water and enjoy fishing for the first time, or for the first time in a long time, without having to buy a license up front. Most importantly, we have to balance opportunity with conservation, and Free Fishing Weekend was presenting challenges for certain species."

Also not required on Free Fishing Weekend: Vehicle Access Pass (which comes with a fishing license). A Discover Pass will not be required on WDFW, DNR, or Washington State Park lands on Free Fishing Weekend, in recognition of National Get Outdoors Day on June 10 and Free Fishing Day on June 11. A Two-Pole Endorsement.

The spike in participation during Free Fishing Weekend in past years put excessive pressure on certain shellfish beaches, leading to some beaches seeing seasons close earlier than expected. Harvest on beaches not open for shellfishing has also occurred, along with concerns about crowding, parking, and trespassing.

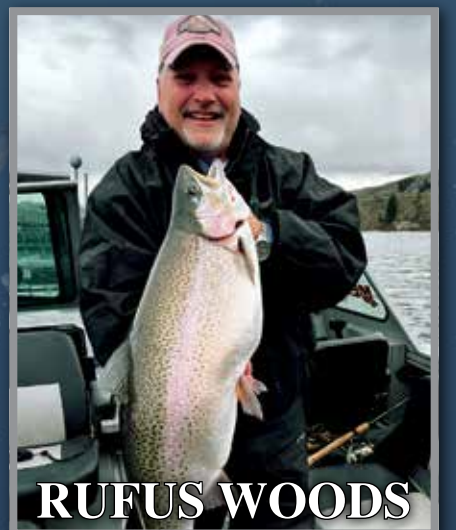

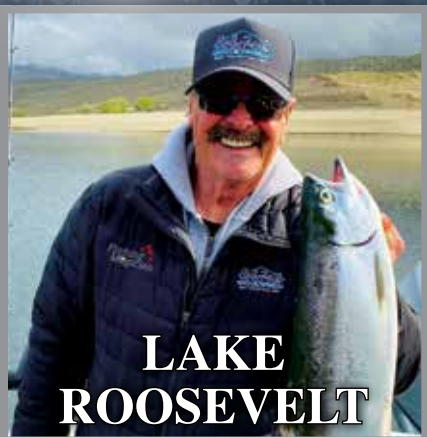

There is another pike minnow derby coming up in June. This one is the 31st annual East Wenatchee Rotary Club's event. It is supported by Chelan County PUD and there is over $10,000 in cash and prizes to be awarded at this derby. It is scheduled for June 17th and 18th. Anglers can weigh in their catches at both the Wenatchee River Front Boat launch in downtown Wenatchee and at the Orondo River Park launch in Orondo. Tickets and rules are available at Hooked on Toys in Wenatchee or Bob Feil Boats and Motors and Bi-Mart in East Wenatchee.

I hope you can take advantage of the Free Fishing Weekend, and give it a try.

CREATURE FEATURE SKUNKS

Other than their distinctive white stripes, Skunks are best known for their stinky defense tactics, but domesticated Skunks are typically descended at a young age. As pets, Skunks are intelligent, curious, playful and social. This combination makes them quite the handful, and they have a reputation for getting into everything, but it also makes them entertaining and rewarding pets!

LIFE SPAN:
Approx. 7-10 Years

DIET:
Cooked Chicken, Eggs, Insects, Vegetables, Commercial Skunk Food

ADULT SIZE:
Approx. 5-10 lbs.

HOW MANY:
Best as Single Pets

DIFFICULTY:

SET-UP

Moderate

CARE ROUTINE

Moderate

COST OF UPKEEP

Moderate

AVAILABILITY

Moderately Difficult

HABITAT:

Skunk care is similar in many ways to caring for a dog or an indoor cat. Your skunk will want to be out, free to explore the house most of the time but a large dog kennel should be used to keep them safe when you're not home.

NECESSITIES:

- Large Dog Kennel
- Safely Fenced Outdoor Area
- Harness & Leash
- Litterbox & Pellet Litter
- Nail & Fur Grooming Tools

ACCESSORIES:

- A Variety of Dog & Cat Toys Including: Chew Toys, Climbing Toys, Beds & Tunnels

5 WAYS TO ENHANCE YOUR HOME'S CURB APPEAL - Part 2 -

Early Summer is the perfect time to make the outside of your home look like the best on the block. Outdoor upgrades will enhance your house's curb appeal and deliver a more substantial return on investment if you're trying to sell. Some exterior projects may require the help of a professional, but many solutions are reasonably simple and affordable.

First, review your home's appearance as if you're a potential buyer. Then, take note of what you see. What's eye-catching, and which features on your home's exterior can benefit from a simple touch-up? To help get you started, consider these makeover suggestions:

1. Lighting
2. Paint
3. Grime
4. Grass

Real estate experts say a lush lawn makes all the difference in appealing to neighbors and buyers alike. Fortunately, keeping up with your yard throughout the year can be simpler than you think. Before you mow your lawn, inspect the height of your mower blade and adjust as needed to ensure the grass is at least 3-4 inches tall after mowing. Taller grass will help keep the soil cooler and allow the roots to grow longer to retain moisture better and reach nutrients.

5. Extra Greenery

Planters with vibrant spring colors can make a big impression on the any-sized porch. While homeowners with covered porches may seek out hanging planter options, those with uncovered porches can explore using planters of all sizes. A creative presentation can make your home memorable if you experiment with your planter's arrangement.

Boosting your home's curb appeal doesn't have to consume your spare time and cash. While some projects are certainly more considerable investments than others, some of the most effective tactics require little more than some good old-fashioned elbow grease. WEEKLY Horoscopes for June 9-15

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

Aries, despite your best efforts, you cannot seem to get much work done this week. Your head is in the clouds with matters of the heart. Soon enough your focus will return.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

This week you may tire from charging into battle and prefer others to do the fighting for you, mighty Taurus. You can use a rest from always putting yourself out there.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21

Adopt a more serious tone this week, Gemini. Your actions may be judged without your knowledge, so lay low. Put the most professional foot forward.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22

People may respond much better to comforting words and gestures this week, Cancer. Carefully construct your approach to communicating to reach the widest audience.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23

You may soon discover that a person who you consider a friend really is your perfect match, Leo. When you look at this person, the realization may suddenly dawn on you.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, others around you are especially sensitive this week, so even the slightest criticism could be mistaken for an insult. Rather than ruffle feathers, hold your tongue.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

These next few days you could present an opportunity to break free from everyday life and the mundane, Libra. If you don't know how to proceed, follow your gut.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

You don't always need to be in pursuit of some sort of intellectual betterment, Scorpio. Get outside and take a walk or swim in a lake. Engage in trivial things that bring you joy.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, you are capable of producing impressive results if you set your mind on a plan. This is the week to dabble in a new hobby that will bring forth your creativity.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

Some debates may not come to a swift resolution, Capricorn. You may need to accept that you simply disagree with someone on a particular topic and let things lie.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, you may have been a little worried about your work or studies lately. This week things will lighten up and you'll feel much more in control of your situation.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20

This is likely to be a busy week filled with the potential for travel. Bring along a close friend or a loved one for the adventure.
