WEEKLY Horoscopes for Aug 3 - 9

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

Things that have seemingly been holding you back should be reevaluated this week, Aries. You are looking elsewhere for solutions, when all you need to do is make a few tweaks.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

Taurus, spend time reflecting on things this week, as you may have some difficult decisions to make in the near future. A close confidante can serve as a sounding board.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21

Gemini, now is the time to identify your priorities as they pertain to the job. Do you want a career and a company that you stick with? Or, are you satisfied with being a contract worker?

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22

Prepare for some stressful times ahead, Cancer. It is nothing you cannot survive, but it could throw a wrench in your plans for the time being. Reward yourself with some extra pampering.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23

Leo, you may have planned on staying to yourself, in order to knock things off of your to-do list. That simply will not pan out right now. Expect to be surrounded by people.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, others do not seem receptive to your way of doing things this week. You cannot please everyone, so figure out who you can work with and appeal to those people to get things done.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

Libra, you may have to take off the rose-colored glasses for a little while. Although it's good to have a cheery outlook, a no-nonsense approach will serve you well in the days ahead.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

Scorpio, you could be having doubts about your role in your workplace. Maybe the work isn't stimulating or the responsibilities too great. If change is happening, do it soon.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, something from your past will come back to the surface in the days to come. Maybe it is an error you made or it could be an opportunity that you thought was lost.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

Think about adding more hobbies or recreational activities to your slate, Capricorn. All work and no play is not healthy for you right now. It's time to find a greater balance in life.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, the latest developments on the job have not been encouraging. You are tempted to cut back on your efforts, but you are worried about the implications of that.

Dave Jayne
"The Outdoor Insider"

Sockeye fishing opened on Lake Wenatchee on July 26th, and I have been hard at it. I wasn't alone either. In spite of the long lines at the boat launch the upper end of the lake was crowded with boats, filled with happy anglers trolling for sockeye.

It was a different opening day of sockeye fishing than usual on Lake Wenatchee. Typically, there is a great early morning bite, but not this year. My crew of Ellie Coen, Kellen Drake and Justin Whitman and I were trolling my traditional path toward West Point by 5:30. But no nets were out, and we saw maybe one fish landed. I was starting to question my decision of running all lead balls instead of using my downriggers as I have always done in previous seasons. At about 6:30, when the morning sunlight started hitting the water, things changed, and we got busy.

I was testing a variety of rigs: pink hoochies with two hooks, pink hoochies with three hooks, no hoochies and three bare red hooks and we got fish on all of them—except the three bare hook rig, which usually is a winner on Lake Wenatchee. From 6:30 to 7:30 we landed 10 nice sockeye, and even landed all three fish in a triple hookup. This was more like it. What a blast. We had a deadline to be back at the dock by eight, so we packed it in and headed for the dock. We weren't the only boat that cashed in on the late bite. We saw a lot of fish landed, mostly toward the top end of the lake.

The following morning, I had my brother in law, Tom Verschuren, and the new owner of Dan's Market in Leavenworth, Jonathan Koincz, with me. We left Leavenworth at 4:30, so we started a little later than the day before, counting on a later bite in the morning. This time I pointed the boat toward the top end of the lake, and pretty much on schedule we got our first fish at about 6:30. The bite wasn't hot, just steady, although we did get one double.

The water was calmer than the day before, which made navigating through the boats a lot easier, but may have accounted for the slower catch rate than the day before. Once again two hook rigs with hoochies worked very well.

We stayed at the top end of the lake, making long loops, and like I said, we enjoyed steady action.

On days like this you can really appreciate the natural beauty of fishing on Lake Wenatchee. Someone commented on the scent of pine, even out on the water. That sure beats the smoke that we fished in later in the season last year.

This time I was the one with the deadline to be back at the dock. I had to drive to Seattle to meet some friends for lunch and stop at Seattle Pottery for supplies for my wife. I was running a little late, as there was a good bite just about the time we were due to leave.

Still, we had nine nice sockeye in the cooler when pulled our gear and headed for the dock. This week's photo is of Jonathan with a nice sockeye.

On Saturday, I had Kim Kozelisky, Keith Hiatt and Jim Smith, from Upper Valley Excavation on board. I reminded Kim and Keith about the last time I had both of them on the boat for sockeye fishing, we started the day with a triple! We laughed about what a fire drill that was, and that we landed all three fish. On that day the bite died early and didn't start again, and we struggled to put a few more fish on the boat. There was a stiff breeze blowing when we launched and although it dropped off for a short period when the sun came up, it picked up again, and we were getting bounced around all morning.

We hooked a good number of fish, but it was difficult getting all of them to the net. The wind made it a challenge to dodge all the boats at times, but we made it through the day without mishap. Oh, maybe one issue. One of my riggers didn't stop as it is supposed to, and when the ball hit the boom—snap my weight sunk out of sight. Oh well, that happens. We were all getting hungry, so we headed for the Squirrel Tree, and I sent them home with five sockeye.

The Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife has sent out a notice that the Chinook salmon fishery boundaries have been extended on the Entiat River. The new boundaries are from the railroad bridge at the mouth of the river to the Mad River Road Bridge, near Ardenvoir. Fishing opens on August 1st. If you have ever tried fishing on the Entiat for Chinook, you know that there are very few locations that hold salmon, and hopefully the new boundary will provide more opportunities for anglers. River levels on the Entiat, and others throughout the region are very low for this time of year. There are a few holes that are deep enough to hold salmon, though, and I expect them to be hit pretty hard. The daily limit, according to the official release, is six salmon, with a minimum size of 12 inches. All other salmon are to be released.

When I think of fishing the Entiat River, I remember the many great days I had fly fishing above Entiat Falls. My wife love wading the small water and casting to small trout near the Spruce Grove campground. It's beautiful up there, and we rarely encounter any other anglers.

I took Sunday off, so I did the repairs on my downrigger, tied more leaders and got the boat ready for the next trip. I have friends from Moses Lake coming early in the week, and my brother Rick and Rollie will be fishing with me, too. I am really looking forward to that. Rollie and I used to fish together quite a bit, but since he's let me tie to his dock, we are both taking out separate groups. It is going to be great, whether we get a bunch of fish or not.

REFRESH YOUR HOME WITH NEW FLOORS

Part 1

Minor upgrades to your home can make a big difference. The good news is that a home refresh doesn't always require a significant renovation. New flooring can change the look and feel of your home. Aside from style and décor, there are several factors to consider when deciding what flooring material to select when purchasing new floors. Cost, durability, moisture, and maintenance are important factors to consider in your new flooring choice and the area in your home you'll be refreshing. Here are some popular floor options among homeowners to help you evaluate what works best for your home:

Hardwood

According to a recent home buyer preferences survey by the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB), an overwhelming share (81%) of home buyers said they want hardwood floors on their main living spaces. This popular flooring type is available in various wood species, such as oak, cherry, and maple. Wood floors can be beautiful and durable if they are well-maintained.

Vinyl

Cost-conscious homeowners in search of a resilient flooring option should consider vinyl. Unlike other types of flooring, vinyl is ideal for areas in your home prone to moisture, such as laundry rooms or basements. Vinyl has adhesive and is available in sheets or tiles. Repairing damaged vinyl is as easy as removing and replacing it. However, there are several limitations to this type of floor. Vinyl is likely to scratch, can vary in quality and may not have a contemporary look compared to other flooring options.

A careful mix of flooring materials can make for a long-lasting and beautiful home and provide comfort for the pattering of many feet throughout the years. With the many options available, it's hard to go wrong. For more information about flooring options or other home renovations contact the Central Washington Home Builders Association at 509.454.4006 or www.CWHBA.org, or browse the Exchange for professional remodelers in our area.

ALL GOES AS PLANNED FOR GIBSON AT IDAHO 200

POST FALLS, Idaho (July 29, 2023) — It's not often that all the pre-planning that goes into preparation for a long stock car race like the Idaho 200 pays off.

But for Nampa, Idaho's Nick Gibson that's exactly what happened as he won the 24th running of that race at Stateline Speedway, July 29. Gibson finished ahead of defending champ Haeden Plybon from Spokane and barnstorming Grant Thompson who towed in from far away Mobile, Alabama.

"We just had a good strategy for the weekend going into it," Gibson said in a July 31 interview. "We really stuck with that."

It paid off for a $5,000 check, plus bonus money for laps lead results in an as yet undetermined bonus.

"Two podiums two years running, that's pretty good," said Gibson, who coming into the race, wasn't all that confident of his chances. "I didn't think we were gonna win it. I figured I had a top five car."

As much as pre-race prep fell into place, not everything went the way of the 38-year-old owner operator of a diesel repair shop.

Nick Gibson (middle) from Nampa, Idaho was the winner of the 24th annual Idaho 200 at Stateline Speedway, July 29. He's seen with runner-up and defending race champ Haeden Plybon (left) out of Deer Park and third place Grant Thompson who towed in from far away Mobile, Alabama.

PEABODY COLLECTS COLUMBIA CUP

KENNEWICK, Wash. (July 29, 2023) — It was a perfect weekend for Corey Peabody and the Beacon Plumbing boat on the H1 Unlimited Racing Series.

Not only was he the fastest qualifier for the Columbia Cup race in the Tri-Cities, and the winner of every preliminary heat he entered, but Peabody also came away with the victory in the winner-take-all final heat.

It was his second career victory on the Columbia River racecourse — having scored a win in 2021 — and the second of the 2023 season for Peabody from Covington, Wash.

"I absolutely love this course," Peabody said. "What a heck of a run."

His boat, the oldest in the sport, was completely rebuilt during the offseason because of an end-over-end, blow-over accident in the second event of the 2022 season.

"This boat is something special," Peabody added. "We've been working our tails off for a year, so thank you to all of our crew."
