KELLY GRABS SEATTLE RACE WIN, NATIONAL HYDROPLANE TITLE

From H1 Media and NW Motorsports

SEATTLE, WASH. — J. Michael Kelly came from behind twice Sunday, Aug. 6 on Lake Washington and was rewarded not only with the coveted Gold Cup, HomeStreet Bank Cup, but also the H1 Unlimited Racing Series national championship for the Beacon Electric boat.

"Absolutely, amazing, just beautiful weekend here at Seafair," Kelly said. "Never in a million years could I think that I'd win another Gold Cup, let alone a championship."

In the battle within a battle Kelly needed until the third lap to finally overtake Andrew Tate in the Miss Goodman Real Estate to then pulled away. Tate finished second, Corey Peabody and Beacon Plumbing and Dustin Echols in Flav-R-Pac rounded out the top-four.

The win is Kelly's second APBA Gold Cup victory and is also the second in a row for his Strong Racing Team. The

With the Lake Washington floating bridge as a backdrop, J. Michael Kelly and the Beacon Electric battles Andrew Tate driving Miss Goodman Real Estate in the championship heat of the Gold Cup in Seattle, Aug. 6. Kelly drove from behind to capture the lead on the third of four laps to win the oldest trophy in motorsports, the Gold Cup, first contested in 1904. Kelly also was crowned the 2023 H1 national champion, topping teammate Corey Peabody in the Beacon Plumbing boat.

CRUNCH TIME
Things got out of hand for Logan Cole (3) and Tommy Elstoen (2) at the "South Sound 200" staged at South Sound Speedway, Rochester, Wash., Aug. 5. The only incident happened on lap six and involved Cole and Elstoen who started first and third respectively. The two were racing hard for the lead when they got together in turn three and the subsequent crash took both cars out of the race. JJ Hamilton won the race that featured a seventeen-car main event but only nine finished. He took the lead on a lap-6 restart and was untouchable after that. ■

RATTLER'S RUN MX/TRIALS RACES ARE SEPT. 16-17

Paul Delaney has been writing about Motorsports in the Pacific Northwest since 1976. He welcomes learning about your racing accomplishments.

American Power Boat Association Gold Cup is the most prestigious trophy in all of boat racing and, first run in 1904, it is the oldest trophy in American motorsports.

Kelly's second rally, that for the H1 championship, erased Corey Peabody's 91-point lead in the 2023 standings.

With his victory in the final heat, Kelly ended the 2023 campaign with an 84-point advantage over Peabody. Echols of Monroe, Wash. was third.

There were four different winners during preliminary heat action earlier in the day. In the day's first heat, Dustin Echols got a perfect start and led the field to the finish line with Kelly placing second.

The day's next heat featured a deck-to-deck battle between Tate and Dylan Runne, both of the Madison Race Team. Tate got his boat across the finish line just a few feet ahead of Runne, who was driving last year's national champion Miss HomeStreet.

Tate was involved in another close race in Heat 4A where he, Peabody, and Runne again thrilled the fans by running side by side through much of the early portion of the race. It ended with Peabody getting across the finish by just a nose ahead of Tate.

Kelly was the winner of Heat 4B when he pulled into the lead during the first lap and held that advantage to the end.

In a truncated season of just four races after San Diego's Bayfair traditional September event was cancelled, the H1 season comes to an end.

The race teams will now head back to their shops for the off-season to begin preparing the world's fastest race boats for a 2024 H1 Unlimited campaign, hopefully with a rebound from 2023? ■

Dave Graybill
"The Outdoor Insider"

I had some obligations that kept me off the water much of last week, but I did get some time in at Lake Wenatchee for sockeye. Recent reports of improved fishing has me excited to get back out there. There are several other good fisheries going now, too.

An often-overlooked special fishery is the opening of trout fishing at Bridgeport. This special season is only open through August 15th, each year, and is aimed at removing triploid rainbow trout from this area below Chief Joseph Dam. It is timed to occur when our upper Columbia steelhead have yet to arrive in this area. The daily limit is 10 fish. Barbless hooks are required, and only adipose fin clipped fish may be kept. This can be a really fun fishery at times.

Anglers either fish with bobbers and jigs or cast white hoochies or tube jigs to the shore. When casting tube jigs, anglers will often push a Corkie into the head of jig to make it buoyant. Some of the more popular spots are on the north shore just below the Highway 17 bridge, the point below the sandy beach on the south shore, and at the "Blow Hole", which is the outlet at the Colville Trout Hatchery, below the town of Bridgeport.

Another often overlooked fishery this time of year is for smallmouth bass in the Okanogan River. Anglers fish above the bridge at the mouth of the Okanogan River and cast crank baits or jigs to the shore. There's plenty of water from here to the Monse Bridge. I have friends that have told me that they catch and release 50 or more smallmouth in this stretch of the Okanogan River.

I have put some people off that I was going to take fishing for sockeye on Lake Wenatchee. Fishing had been very slow, and I was hoping the bite would improve. I have many friends and family that I want to take out for some sockeye fishing fun. In the meantime, I got to do something that I enjoy doing all by myself. I got my fly rod and drove up the Icicle River valley to one of the stretches that I like to fish. It's a lot cooler up the valley than in Leavenworth, and I rarely find anyone in the same place that I fish. The trout are small, but they act like they are big ones, pouncing on the fly and jumping. I chuckle to myself watching them. Since I had spent a couple of hours struggling to load an audio recording program onto a backup computer, getting out on the river is a great way to clear my mind. I marveled at the scent in the air on the way back to my truck. Nothing like that pine aroma. Next time I get wound up, I know where to wind down, on the river, casting to small trout.

I had enjoyed several days of great fishing for sockeye on Lake Wenatchee, and I saw other anglers doing well, too. I had last Sunday off, and it allowed me to sleep in and get ready for another week of fishing. I was looking forward to taking some friends out, who were traveling all the way from Moses Lake. I had them meet me at Cole Corner at 4:30, so we wouldn't miss the early morning bite. There was a stiff breeze blowing and it was darn chilly out as we left the dock, and I got my gear out. Well, there wasn't a morning bite, and in fact there wasn't a bite at all. We caught just one fish and gave it up. I was very disappointed. I really wanted to show them a good time. On Tuesday my brother Rick came up and Rollie Schmitt joined us.

In spite of my poor performance the day before, I expected the three of us to find a way to catch a bunch of fish. Not so. We fished up to the top end of the lake and made several loops and only landed one fish. We trolled down to the area above West Point and landed one more. There was a brief bite and we saw several fish landed at about 10 a.m., but the action has definitely slowed for sockeye on Lake Wenatchee. This week's photo was taken during a stormy day on the lake last year.

I am attributing the slow bite to the especially bright full moon. I don't know what your opinion is about moon phases, but it has proven to be a factor for me over the years. I always planned my group trips to Belize and Mexico around the dark of the moon, and that seems to have paid off.

Although I had some tough days, I know that there were other anglers that were in the right place at the right time and landed fair numbers of fish. I am already hearing about a much improved bite and can't wait to get back out. I am also hearing that the quality of the fish is holding up well, too.

You may have heard that there has been some closures to sturgeon fishing below Priest Rapids Dam and further downstream. There is some good news for fans of sturgeon fishing. Lake Roosevelt is going to open to fishing for white sturgeon beginning on September 16th. The daily limit is one sturgeon, with an annual limit of two. Check out the official news release for all the details.

It may seem like a ways off, but I advise people to start planning if you want to use a guide service or book hotel rooms. I have fished for sturgeon on Lake Roosevelt a couple of times, and although I haven't landed a keeper, there was always some action, and battling even sub-limit size sturgeon is fun. You get a glimpse of what sturgeon fishing is like by going to the Dave Graybill YouTube channel and watching the video I did with Kevin Witte a couple of years ago. Kevin lives in Kettle Falls and knows the sturgeon fishery on this stretch of the Columbia River very well.

Although I had some tough days, I know that there were other anglers that were in the right place at the right time and landed fair numbers of fish. I am already hearing about a much improved bite and can't wait to get back out. I am also hearing that the quality of the fish is holding up well, too. In fact I ran up to Lake Wenatchee after last weekend to make sure everything is ready to go for more sockeye trips. I am locked and loaded for more sockeye fishing fun!

REFRESH YOUR HOME WITH NEW FLOORS

Part 2

Minor upgrades to your home can make a big difference. The good news is that a home refresh doesn't always require a significant renovation. New flooring can change the look and feel of your home. Aside from style and décor, there are several factors to consider when deciding what flooring material to select when purchasing new floors. Cost, durability, moisture, and maintenance are important factors to consider in your new flooring choice and the area in your home you'll be refreshing. Here are some popular floor options among homeowners to help you evaluate what works best for your home:

Laminate

A popular, less expensive alternative to hardwood floors is laminate. This type of flooring option comprises of various wood-based materials layered together, which are 'laminated' and finished off with a photographic imprint. Generally, laminate is available in tiles or planks and are relatively easy to install and maintain. However, laminate flooring is a viable option if you still want the look of hardwood floors without actually having them. Laminate is also more resistant to scuffs and scratches.

Tile

Porcelain and ceramic tiles come in beautiful designs, including diamond, herringbone, chevron, and basketweave, with shapes including circles, squares, rectangles, and triangles. The variety of designs may be one of the reasons why nearly two-thirds (64%) of homebuyers prefer tile as a flooring choice in their main living areas. In addition, porcelain tile offers easy maintenance, durability, and stain and slip resistance.

Carpet

Depending on depth and fiber type, carpet can provide warmth and reduce noise. Carpet depth is categorized by low pile, medium pile, and high pile, most of which are available in various textures. Textures are created by the thickness of the yarn and how it is woven together to make the carpet. Regular maintenance or hiring professional carpet cleaners is recommended with this option to keep your floor looking and feeling fresh year-round.

A careful mix of flooring materials can make for a long-lasting and beautiful home and provide comfort for the pattering of many feet throughout the years. With the many options available, it's hard to go wrong. For more information about flooring options or other home renovations, contact the Central Washington Home Builders Association at 509.454.4006 or www.CWHBA.org, or browse the Exchange for professional remodelers in our area.
