Non-Profit Organization in Service to our Troops

A Non-Profit Organization in service to our Troops since 2013 - 100% Goes to Our Heroes! WE SUPPORT OUR TROOPS!

WHO WE ARE

- ★ We fundraise and send Christmas care packages to Our soldiers overseas for the holidays, and to a lesser extent needed requested items year 'round!
- ★ We can't forget our Heroes and need your support!
- ★ We learned over the years that we can help more than double the number of soldiers with a better volume of products if we send orders via direct online with free shipping to the APO Addresses because of the higher shipping costs at the USPS for international shipping.
- ★ If you have a loved one serving overseas, e-mail us their information so we can get Care Packages to them first. We will serve Local Heroes first!

Now Collecting Items for CHRISTMAS 2023!

- ★ Due to the delay in international shipping, we will have our open Event this Year as early as Nov. 19th and 20th from 2pm until 6pm

Dave Jayne
"The Outdoor Insider"

The first snow has fallen here at my home in Leavenworth. Well, a "wintery mix" is what they call it. I managed to pick a couple of sunny days last week to get out on the water and try my luck. It is getting near the time when I change my fishing tactics.

This time of year, I often choose to fish from the shore at several locations in our region. Rainbow trout and triploid rainbow trout are my target, and the possibility of landing some really big fish is very good.

This year, the Colville Tribe released over 45,000 triploids into Rufus Woods. They released 15,000 in February, weighing 2 pounds each. In the period of April through May they released 25,000 2 pounders, and an additional 5,000 were released later in May and June. The fish in this plant weighed 1.8 pounds. When you consider the rapid growth rate of these fish, anglers can realistically expect to catch trout weighing 4 to 6 pounds now. The possibility of getting one that weighs double digits is very real.

Most anglers will fish Rufus Woods at the public accesses above Chief Joseph Dam, or at my favorite spot, Brandts Landing, which is a Federal Park six miles above the boat launch. Fishing from shore at the middle net pens is very popular, even though this requires a Tribal Access permit.

I also like to fish Lake Roosevelt from shore. Near Coulee Dam I fish at Crescent Beach or Spring Canyon. I also fish from shore at Keller. The trout I catch on Lake Roosevelt average 16 to 20 inches. At all of these locations I use the same method. A sliding slip sinker rig with the hook baited with either Power Bait, a marshmallow and shrimp or nightcrawler combo. This week's photo is of two limits of trout Tom Verschuren and I landed at Keller in November a few years ago.

I keep a backpack handy, that is loaded with what I need for a day of fishing from shore. There are rod holders, extra leaders and sinkers, a stringer, a good selection of Power Bait, a jar of shrimp and marshmallows. I can grab this and hit the door with everything I need to catch Rufus Woods or Lake Roosevelt trout. I will also often bring hand and foot warmers, my Fishing Buddy propane heater, or even some wood to start a blaze in the fireboxes that are located at many of the public access points at Brandts Landing.

The weather forecast was for another sunny day last Thursday, so I called my friend James Lebow in Moses Lake, and asked if he would like to give Potholes a try. He was willing so we fished it Thursday morning. I wanted to see if we could catch some walleye with crank baits off side planers, and we trolled the area at the very top end of Medicare Beach. It was here we scored a first—a catfish on a plug! We also landed a nice smallmouth. We weren't getting any hits on the plugs and really weren't marking many walleye, so we headed to the other side of the reservoir, where we usually find and catch walleye. We switched from trolling side planers and plugs to bottom bouncers and spinners. Well, that didn't really pay off either. We only caught one whopper perch. We marveled at the huge flocks of Canada geese and snow geese that were flying overhead or rafting up on Potholes.

We contemplated what we wanted to do next, and I called Dave, who checks catches on the bottom end of Rufus Woods for the Colville Tribe. He said that there are still mostly small trout being caught, and no one seems to know where they are coming from. I will call my contact at the Colville hatchery and see if they have released any small fish lately. So, we may wait a while before we fish from the shore at Brandts Landing. I have had some great days here over the winter months.

We have many clear, calm and sunny days in the winter over here, and last Tuesday was one of them. It was a great day to be on Lake Chelan, and we had very good kokanee fishing. Tom Verschuren and I had a great start just above the Yacht Club, with a double. One was a small cutthroat and the other was a small kokanee. I thought, oh boy, here we go! We landed seven kokanee trolling in this spot. There were three other boats trolling above the Yacht Club. Traditionally, this is a good place on the lake to find schools of kokanee in the winter.

Then, the bite really slowed down, and the wind started to blow a bit. We figured that this would be a good time to try another area, so I drove the boat to the "Blue Roofs", which are on the shore across the road from Pat and Mike's. There were no other boats here in the lower basin. We got a fish within ten minutes of getting our gear out, but then nothing for about 20 minutes. We crossed the lake and started trolling below Rocky Point and things changed—for the better. We were getting more fish, even spotting some schools of fish on the depth sounder, and they were larger than the kokanee we were getting above the Yacht Club. We got 13 in about an hour and a half. Several were 13 to 14 inches.

We were running the downriggers at 80 feet, and rods with five ounce leads at 80 on the line counter out the back. The back rods were catching as many or more than the downrigger rods. I had my favorite orange spinners behind orange Kokabow blades on a couple of rods and pink spinners behind pink Kokabow blades on a couple of rods. I started running more pink earlier this season with good results. I was keeping my speed at about 1.2 mph.

There is a lot of good fishing to look forward to this winter. I have too many things to be thankful for on this Holiday. I hope you all have a great Turkey Day!

CAT OF THE WEEK

Meet Honey! Many people know Torties to have a certain "cattitude". This girl is no exception. She's the princess snuggle buddy you just might need in your life. She loves her person and is shy with newcomers. She's quite timid and doesn't like loud sudden noises. She will need time, patients and toys to help her open up in her new home. She is spunky, but she's more on the cuddly side.

WEEKLY Horoscopes for Nov 22-30

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

You may have difficulty reaching people this week, Aries. Whether it's difficulty getting attention or tech issues affecting communication, use the situation as an opportunity to relax.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

Taurus, a challenging project may lead you to throw yourself into work even more than usual over the course of the week. Remember to take time to exhale.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21

Visit someone in person if you are looking to catch up or have a meaningful conversation, Gemini. Skip impersonal text messages or social media posts and meet face-to-face.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22

Unfortunate financial news may come your way, Cancer. Take the developments in stride and resolve to overcome them. Seek advice on how to do so, if necessary.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23

Leo, there is a strong desire for romance surrounding you. Whether you want to spice up a current relationship or are seeking a new one, this is the week to put out feelers.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, enjoy a unique chance to spend quality time with someone you love. Enjoy the experience in the moment and resolve to spend more time together.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

An unexpected meeting with a friend and subsequent conversation could leave you feeling a little shaken, Libra. You will learn things that give you a new perspective.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

You could experience a desire to make sudden changes to your home life, work situation or even a relationship, Scorpio. Stagnation has set in, but now is not the time for big moves.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, if a message arrives from someone who lives far away, you may be prompted to hop in the car or on a plane and visit that person. An impromptu trip could be fun.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

Look into all of the facts surrounding an offer to increase your income, Capricorn. It could be too good to be true, or it might be a legitimate deal. You need to sort things out.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, this week you may encounter someone who is very interested in you. The resulting attention can be quite flattering. You'll need to decide if it should go further.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20

Situations that arise this week could have you feeling stressed, Pisces. Find ways you can separate yourself from certain situations that rile you up, even if it means a five-minute break.

NW MOTORSPORTS

NOVEMBER 24, 2023 Report

"Going fast is your job...telling people about it is ours...!"

Thanks to the Exchange for helping continue the four-decade tradition of delivering weekly motorsports news to the Inland Northwest!

MELINA BANKS - SUNSET SPEEDWAY

Despite having her gene pool deeply rooted in drag racing, Melina Banks has decided to pursue her passion for speed on the dirt go-kart track at Sunset Speedway in Spokane.

And why fiddle with success?

Banks' dad, Patrick and her grandmother, Bonnie McLain, both spent years devoted to the quarter-mile. Bonnie, who passed away in January, was the forever director of the timing tower at Spokane Raceway Park.

Patrick has driven all kinds of cars, both on the oval and drag strip. He was the 2018 vintage modified champion at Stateline Speedway.

But there's no convincing 13-year-old Melina, a Mountain-side Middle School in the Mead district to switch from dirt to drags.

"She likes drag racing to watch," Patrick wrote, however, "She says too much work for a short ride."

"We have a blown alcohol front engine-dragster and she wants nothing to do with it," her dad added. As far as karts vs. drag racing is concerned, she wanted the longer ride, not just a few seconds.

Banks won in two classes in 2023 at Sunset, one being Jr. II Clone where she was in a battle with Bently Bartle and edged him by just 2 points. Banks was the lone driver in the Jr. Cage Karts.

This year is her fourth consecutive year of winning the championship in the flat kart.

Melina won the Jr. Wing class championship where she raced with the open 500s all year. Her best finish was third with half the engine power.

Melina also made a trip to Rainer and raced with the Pacific Outlaws and finished sixth out of 12 in the a main starting last after racing her way in the A main. This placed her first in the 250 class.

The flat kart has special meaning for Melina as it was a gift from her grandmother before she passed away.

Looking to 2024, Melina is planning on running the Junior Unlimited All Stars and going for a UAS championship. Unlimited All Stars race all over the country with the Grand Nationals in Arizona.

"We are trying to schedule two quarter points races at Sunset Speedway this year for UAS and a few on the coast," Patrick said.

Melina wants to stay with dirt racing if we move into other classes," her dad said. "She would like to do dirt modified or sprint cars."

When not immersed in racing Melina plays volleyball, basketball and is a member of the school band where she plays trombone.
