NOXIOUS WEEDS

What is a Noxious Weed? They are non-native plants that have been introduced to Spokane County through human actions. Because of their aggressive growth and lack of natural enemies, these species can be destructive, competitive, and difficult to control.

BLUEWEED

(ECHIUM VULGARE)

This perennial grows up to 3ft tall. Basal Leaves are hairy and covered with small white bumps with dark flecks. Stiff, bristly stems with swollen red, purple or black bases. Blue, purple or pink flowers on coiled stems. Deep taproot that spreads by seed. It can be toxic to humans and livestock. Infestations can be dug out of the soil, or sprayed when the plant is young and actively growing.

HISTORIC PHOTOS of IDAHO PANHANDLE

Blackwell Boutique Hotel

This beautiful home, located at 820 Sherman Avenue, was built by lumberman Frederick Blackwell as a wedding gift for his son Russell. Russell and his wife Pauline moved into the house in 1904. He became very involved with his father's business empire including managing the Coeur d'Alene and Spokane Electric Railroad and president of the Blackwell Motor Company. In 1919 Russell and his family moved to Spokane and the house was sold to lumberman Walter S. Rosenberry. Today, the historic building is owned Bill Wendlandt and is operated as the Blackwell Boutique Hotel. The Blackwell house is included on the Museum of North Idaho's walking tour of historic downtown Coeur d'Alene, with historian Robert Singletary. Walking tours of downtown and old Fort Sherman will be offered from June 18 to mid-October, Tuesday through Saturday. The downtown tour begins at 11:00 AM and the Fort Sherman tours starts at 1:30 PM. Both tours start at the Museum located at 115 NW Boulevard in Coeur d'Alene. Tickets are $15 and include free parking in the Museum lot and admission to the Museum of North Idaho. Call 755-1308 or 664-3448 for further information

Dave Jayne
"The Outdoor Insider"

I enjoyed a couple of days of fun of Banks Lake earlier this week. This is such a great place to spend a day on the water. The basalt cliffs of the Moses Coulee offer great views. It's a big lake, about 26 miles long, so there's room for a lot of boats. I have several favorite spots, but there are many more that I need to explore for both walleye, bass and whitefish.

Tom Verschuere loves to fish Banks Lake with me. It's such a scenic place and if often provides us with a memorable day of fishing. He loves to fish for smallmouth bass on Banks, but we wanted to dedicate some time to walleye fishing. I fished here with my daughter on Monday, and we only got three small keepers. Thursday was different. We drove the Smoker Craft to the Clay Banks or sand flats just below Steamboat Rock, deployed the Minn Kota and soon had a couple of the "just legal" walleye that have been common this season. Then we got a surprise. Tom landed a walleye that was 22 inches. Not long after that we got a 19 inch! We couldn't believe our luck—and then it got better. I landed a 25 inch walleye! We released this one and after a no-fish loop through the area, went smallmouth bass fishing. We started directly across the lake from the Million Dollar Mile boat launch and started casting Baby Brush Hogs to the sunken rock along the shore. We proceeded to catch and release over 30 smallmouth, including several 2- to 3 pounders. It was a great finish to our day. This week's photo is of me with the 25-incher we released.

When my daughter Whitney comes to visit, one of our favorite things to do is go fishing at Banks Lake. She caught onto catching smallmouth bass many years ago and followed that with having very good luck catching big walleye. So, when she came over from Seattle for Father's Day, we already knew we would be on Banks the following day. This year we launched the Bob Feil Boats and Motors Smoker Craft at Steamboat Rock State Park instead of Northrup, so she could try outdo her catch of a whopper walleye in Devils Punchbowl. We had a bunch of bites in the Punchbowl, but didn't hook anything, so we ran around Steamboat to the sand flats above The Poplars. Just a couple of bites here, too, so off we went to Barker Flats. Whitney landed a nice smallmouth bass, and we also got a small walleye here. We both like to fish the Million Dollar Mile stretch below Rosebush, and that was our next destination. As soon as we arrived, we were into walleye. We landed a few small fish and got a lot of bites here. We finished our day across the lake having fun catching smallmouth. We had a great time!

Walleye fishing can be good one day and poor the next. That's not unusual. I remember many years ago my brother

Rick calling me saying that we needed to get up to Banks the next day. Our cousin Greg and he had a terrific day catching walleye and we needed to get in on the action. So, my wife Eileen and I got up early, picked him up and headed for the spot on Banks that had been super productive the day before. Guess what. We caught two smallmouth bass and one perch! Talk about "you should have been there yesterday." Being the eternal optimist that I am, and many anglers are, I am going back to Banks to give it another try. The great thing about Banks is that if the walleye aren't biting you can always have a blast catching smallmouth bass.

Fans of fishing for Lahontan cutthroat trout mark their calendars for June 1st, when Grimes Lake opens to fishing. Grimes has a short season, closing at the end of August. Anglers reach Grimes from the town of Mansfield. It is known to produce some very large Lahontan cuts and is one of several selective gear-rule lakes in the state that has this special species. Many anglers are aware of the good Lahontan fishing at Lake Lenore, which is the most easily accessed of these lakes. The east shore is bordered by Highway 17, just up the road from Soap Lake. There are two Lahontan cutthroat lakes in Okanogan County. Blue Lake, which is a 120 acre lake, northeast of Wanacut Lake outside of Tonasket. The other is Albright Lake, which is just 21 acres in size. Albright is accessed from the Lime Lakes road. Anglers should be aware of winterkills that have impacted Albright, and that a fire burned the surrounding area in 2014. Sprague Lake, which straddles Adams and Lincoln counties, is popular for several species including Lahontan cutthroat. Selective gear rules do not apply at Sprague. My favorite is Omak Lake, on the Colville Indian Reservation. In spite of the launching issues, the number and size of the cutthroat we get on Omak Lake makes it worth it.

I have mentioned before that Bob Feil Boats and Motors is sponsoring several events this summer, and I have taken the Smoker Craft along to show it off. I have already been to the Classy Chassis in East Wenatchee, the Manson Apple Blossom Parade, the Quincy Chamber of Commerce Trout Derby, the Touch a Truck in Wenatchee, and the Quincy Pike Minnow Derby at Crescent Bar. I recently returned to Crescent Bar for the second annual Celebration of the Opening Day of Boating Season and Boat Parade. This year's theme was "Pirates", and participants were encouraged to decorate their boats and dress accordingly. The boats lined up in the channel near the Marina and then proceeded by the judges and under the bridge, which was packed with a crowd that shouted and waved as they passed through to the Columbia River. The participants went all out this year with some amazing decorations and costumes. The crew from Bob Feil Boats and Motors got into the swing of things and mine was one of their three boats in the parade. Terrific fun! The Crescent Bar Association did a great job hosting the event and have big plans for next year.

Next week I will be traveling to northern Okanogan County to continue my video project. It will be great capturing some of the terrific lakes in this region. I hope you enjoy learning about them.

The Lewiston, Idaho team, "Pure Insanity," dominated from start to finish and collected the Unlimited class championship in the June 21 sprint boat race on Webb's Slough in St. John, Washington. The boat is driven by 20-year-old River Rogers along with navigator, Cole Keatts. The Jolly Rogers team of driver Eric Wener, Arlington and navigator, Samantha Hughes, both Spokane, were modified winners. The teams return to race Aug. 23.

BRISCOE OUTLASTS HAMLIN AT POCONO

By Holly Cain-NASCAR Wire Service

Pocono (Penn.) June 22, 2025 — Chase Briscoe has earned a NASCAR Cup Series season-best four pole positions and led laps in eight races in his first season driving the famous No. 19 Joe Gibbs Racing Toyota, and finally — finally — on Sunday afternoon that hard work translated into his first trophy, edging his JGR teammate Denny Hamlin in The Great American Getaway 400 presented by VisitPA.com at Pocono Raceway.

It came down to the suspenseful very final laps, Briscoe having to save as much fuel as possible while maintaining the lead the last 34 laps with Pocono's all-time winningest driver Hamlin and a two-time Pocono winner, Team Penske's Ryan Blaney directly in his rearview mirror, pushing him lap after lap.

But Briscoe did it — perfectly executing throttle control to maintain the lead and not run his Toyota Camry out of gas — ultimately beating Hamlin across the line by .682-second to formally punch his win-and-in 2025 Playoff ticket.

The 30-year-old Indiana-native led a race best 72 of the 160 laps on the day and even had enough fuel for the well-deserved victory celebration.

"There was a lot of pressure," Briscoe conceded. "It was kind of weird. I wasn't driving hard so it's not like I was on the ragged edge, but it was just so hard having a guy chasing you, especially the guy that's the greatest of all time here, to be trying to save fuel and everything else."

Hamlin, a three-time winner this year who is returning to competition after missing last week's Mexico City race to be home in North Carolina for the birth of his son, showed why he is a seven-time Pocono winner, the track's all-time best.

His runner-up finish marks the 10th time he's finished first or second at the unique 2.5-mile three-turn Pocono oval. He won in 2023 and now has finished second in the two races since.

Blaney, who earned his first career NASCAR Cup Series victory at Pocono in 2017 and answered with a win last year, finished third-place finish — especially impressive considering he started from the back of the grid after making adjustments on his car following qualifying.

Chris Buescher, who like Blaney earned his first career NASCAR Cup Series win at Pocono (2016), started his No. 17 Ford on the outside of the front row and was among the day's nine leaders — ultimately finishing fourth. Hendrick Motorsports' Chase Elliott was fifth with back-to-back top-five finishes for the first time this year.

Briscoe's victory — the third of his career — makes him the 11th driver to earn a position in the 16-driver Playoff field — the sixth different in just the last eight weeks.

With nine races remaining to set the Playoff field, Hendrick's Alex Bowman sits in that 16th-place position, 20-points up on Preece for that final points-only transfer position.

The NASCAR Cup Series moves to Atlanta's EchoPark Speedway for the June 28 Quaker State 400 the In Season Bracket Challenge Round 1 race of the $1 million to-win five-race series.

PROCK, LANGDON, HERRERA FIND WINS IN VIRGINIA

DINWIDDIE, Va. (June 22, 2025) — Funny Car points leader and reigning world champion Austin Prock won for the second straight year at Virginia Motorsports Park on Sunday, defeating John Force Racing teammate Jack Beckman in the final round of the fifth annual American Rebel Light Virginia Nationals.

Shawn Langdon (Top Fuel) and Gaige Herrera (Pro Stock Motorcycle) also won the ninth of 20 races during the 2025 NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series season.

In the final round, Prock went 4.061-seconds at 318.02 mph in his 12,000-horsepower Cornwell Tools Chevrolet SS Funny Car, holding off Beckman at the finish line and picking up his third win of the season.

It was also an emotional win for Prock, as the matchup between JFR teammates took place a year after legendary Funny Car driver John Force was involved in a massive crash at Virginia Motorsports Park.

"A lot of emotion for sure," Prock said. "Getting to win last year, that was huge and being able to take the Wally to John as a team, that's what we wanted to do again today, and I'm happy that we could go back-to-back and get the job done for him,"

In Top Fuel, Shawn Langdon finished the job this year at Virginia Motorsports Park, taking his third win of 2025 with a run of 3.940 at 319.67 in his 12,000-horsepower Kalitta Air Careers dragster to get past Justin Ashley in the final round.

"In qualifying, we kind of knew what we're going to be in for on Sunday, so we really tried to get the car to where we felt comfortable with it on a hot surface," Langdon said.

Gaige Herrera had to chase down Angie Smith in the finals in Pro Stock Motorcycle, but the points leader won for the second straight year at Virginia Motorsports Park with a run of 6.826 at 198.79 in the final round on his RevZilla/Motul/Vance & Hines Suzuki. Smith left first on the back-to-back world champion, going 6.853 at 196.76, but Herrera had just enough to get past her at the finish line.

The NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series returns to action June 26-29 with the 19th annual Summit Racing Equipment NHRA Nationals at Summit Motorsports Park in Norwalk, Ohio.

JOE KOPP EARNS PLACE IN AMA HALL-OF-FAME

PICKERINGTON, Ohio (June 18, 2025) — After several weeks of voting, in which thousands of ballots were cast, the AMA Motorcycle Hall of Fame announced the six esteemed inductees to be honored at the 2025 AMA Motorcycle Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony on Oct. 23.

Among those are Mica, Wash. native, Joe Kopp who will join Dana Bell, Chris Carter, Colin Edwards, Chad Reed and Ryan Young in the club.

Kopp reached the pinnacle of Flat Track competition by winning the 2000 AMA Grand National Championship. He also dominated the AMA Supertracker National Championship, taking home the 1999 and 2000 titles.

His impressive record in AMA Grand National events includes 21 career wins, placing him 17th among the all-time greats, and 81 career Grand National podium finishes, ninth all-time.

Kopp is also one of 15 riders to complete the prestigious Dirt Track Grand Slam, winning at least one race in each of the four dirt track disciplines: Short Track, TT, Half-Mile and Mile.

"This distinguished group of motorcyclists exemplifies the spirit, diversity, and dedication of the motorcycling community," said AMA President and CEO Rob Dingman. "Each has made a lasting impact on our sport and lifestyle — whether through competition, advocacy, innovation, or inspiration. Their contributions, from race-tracks to legislative chambers to the open road, have shaped motorcycling as we know it, and we are proud to recognize them with this well-deserved honor."

The AMA Induction Ceremony will kick off AMA Hall of Fame Days, set to run Oct. 23-26, which will include an AMA Motorcycle Hall of Fame Bike Night and open house at the AMA Hall of Fame Museum on Saturday, Oct. 25.

The AMA Induction Ceremony will be held at the Violet Township Event Center on Thursday, Oct. 23, and will be followed by a cocktail reception at the AMA Motorcycle Hall of Fame Museum.

Hall of Fame inductees are selected from eight areas of influence: Ambassadors & Industry, Design & Engineering, Dirt Track, Leadership & Motorcycle Rights, Motocross & Supercross, Off-Road, Road Racing and Special-ty Competition.

PALOU REACHES 'SWEET SIX' AFTER ROAD AMERICA VICTORY | From INDYCAR media

ELKHART LAKE, Wis. (June 22, 2025) — After 55 laps of ferocious, frantic uncertainty, about the only certain thing in the NTT INDYCAR SERIES happened again at Road America — Alex Palou and his Chip Ganassi Racing crew standing in victory lane.

Palou stretched the available fuel in his No. 10 SOLO Cup Chip Ganassi Racing Honda at the end to earn his sixth victory in nine starts this season in the XPEL Grand Prix at Road America Presented by AMR, becoming the first INDYCAR SERIES driver to take the checkered flag at least six times in a season since Will Power in 2011.

"It was a crazy race," Palou said. "There were moments I thought we were losing a ton of positions. It was a tough race for everybody. Kudos to the team for the amazing strategy and Honda for giving us the fuel mileage we needed at the end to make it."

Three-time series champion Palou expanded his lead to 93 points over Andretti Global's Kyle Kirkwood with the victory in a race of varying fuel and tire strategies as the season passed its halfway point, with eight races remaining on the 17-race schedule.

Felix Rosenqvist was unshackled from a fuel-saving strategy over the closing laps in the No. 60 SiriusXM Honda of Meyer Shank Racing w/Curb-Agajanian but fell 2.1725 seconds short to finish second.

Santino Ferrucci had just enough Shell 100% Renewable Race Fuel to hang on to third in the No. 14 Sexton Properties/AJ Foyt Racing Chevrolet, his fourth straight top-five finish this season.

There were a race-record nine leaders today, with Palou taking the top spot for good on Lap 53 of the 55-lap race when teammate and leader Scott Dixon couldn't pull off another miraculous fuel save and was forced to pit in the No. 9 PNC Bank Chip Ganassi Racing Honda.

The next race is The Honda Indy 200 at Mid-Ohio Presented by the all-new 2026 Passport on Sunday, July 6 at Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course in Lexington, Ohio.
