Smoke from fires can be dangerous for everyone

Take these steps to protect your health

Stay informed on air quality

Visit WA Smoke Blog (www.wasmoke.blogspot.com) for current air quality conditions and smoke forecasts. Pay attention to local news for health warnings and air quality reports in your area.

Avoid smoky air

People with health conditions, such as lung or heart diseases, diabetes, stroke survivors or have a cold, should limit their time outside, avoid intense physical activities & keep indoor air clean when smoke levels are "moderate." Babies, children, people over 65, and pregnant women should follow this advice when smoke levels are "unhealthy for sensitive groups." Everyone else should do this when smoke levels are "unhealthy for everyone."

Keep indoor air clean

Close windows & doors, pay attention to the heat, & stay hydrated. Use fans or air conditioner (AC) when it's hot, & set your AC to recirculate. If you don't have an AC & it's too hot to stay home, go to a place with AC like a mall or library. Don't smoke, use candles, or vacuum. Use an air cleaner with a HEPA filter.

Contact your healthcare provider

If you have heart or lung diseases & your symptoms get worse around smoke, contact your healthcare provider. Call 911 if you or someone else has serious symptoms—like trouble breathing.

Dave Graybill
"The Outdoor Insider"

Everyone is wondering what will happen with the sockeye season this year. That's the big question out there right now. Same with the Chinook season. Both runs are either very weak or arriving later than usual.

Most of you know the sockeye run is coming in below the original forecast. I have learned that it has been downgraded to 183,000 fish to enter the Columbia River. That's the bad news, the good news is that the sockeye season above Priest Rapids Dam will open July 1st, with a four-fish limit, as stated in the regs. There will be other meetings on the return, which might mean an adjustment in the daily limit to two fish to extend the season, but that is yet to be determined. The WDFW is looking for ways to keep anglers on the water fishing for sockeye as long as possible. There are some other options being considered, but only if the numbers over Priest Rapids further decline and harvest in the upper river exceed what is anticipated. The Chinook return is also being changed. Only slightly more than 40,000 are expected to reach the upper Columbia. Highly likely is the opening of the Entiat River, and there is the possibility of some very short bubble fisheries later in July. It is important to keep an eye out for any emergency regulation announcements. This sockeye season is very fluid. I know the next questions I will be getting will be about Lake Wenatchee sockeye. It's way too early to guess on a Lake Wenatchee season. You can bet I will be putting my nose against the fence at the counting station at Tumwater Dam every day, checking on the number of sockeye that are passing through.

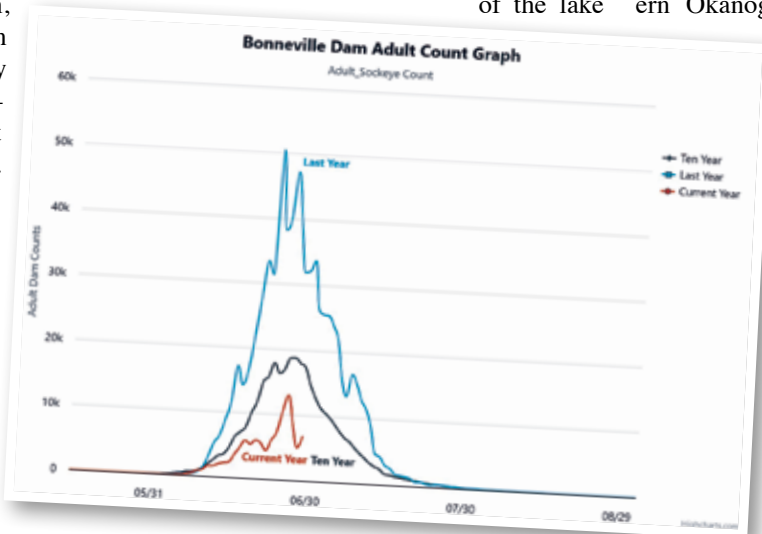

I had a video project to do on Moses Lake, so I asked Tom Verschuere to come along and assist. I promised I would take him to some red hot bass fishing spots to make it worth his while. We launched the Bob Feil Boats and Motors Smoker Craft at Cascade Park, and my first stop was at the sunken reef below Connelly Park. I located the reef by carefully searching with the Minn Kota. I am sure that this reef has dinged a few props over the years. I fished here earlier this spring and caught some whopper smallmouth and largemouth bass. Where they went, I don't know, but they weren't there on Tuesday. I took us to some my other hot spots further up the lake, and all we got were snags. I was about to fire up the Mercury 250 and run back to the ramp, when Tom asked, "Ever fished over there? Looks like there's some great rocks along the shore." I never fish that side away we went. As usual the dock was covered with goose and otter poop, and while Rollie retrieved the anchors, I swept the docks. Next Rollie put the bow of the boat in the "L", pointed it down the lake and began the slow drive to his place. The trick is to get a good line to start with, as steering this "barge" is more than awkward. Rollie was able to hit his mark on the point and snagging the anchor buoys and getting the docks secure went well. There is a little more work to do, but essentially all we need now is fish.

I just spent a couple of days in northern Okanogan County. The mission was to capture video of several of the lakes for a project I am doing for Okanogan County Tourism. What a great experience! I have fished several of the lakes over the years and this trip was a reminder of why I like fishing up there. It was good to survey the lakes for the wide variety of fishing opportunities and also which ones had launches that could accommodate the Bob Feil Boats and Motors Smoker Craft I am driving. Some of the lakes had resorts or nearby services, while others were more remote. There were lakes that offered single species fishing, but many were multi-species. The lakes that I covered and will soon be posting videos of them on the Dave Graybill YouTube channel, were: Concully Lake and Reservoir, Fish Lake, both Blue lakes, Molson, Osoyoos, Wannacut, Whitestone and Spectacle. Although they weren't on my list, and since I was in the area, I also visited Palmer and Lake Chopaka. If you haven't traveled through this country, you will be amazed at the incredibly varied and beautiful scenery. I put almost 500 miles on my truck and loved every mile of it.

It was great to get away and visit these great destinations in Okanogan County. Now I plan on doing some "surveys" of the sockeye fishing in the early season. Oh, and I hope you all have a safe and sane 4th of July Holiday!

in this area, but just to make him happy, we tried it. Wouldn't you know it. This is where the only smallmouth we caught the entire day came from. We then went back to Cascade Park where we met Lynne Lynch, who I work with the City of Moses Lake on Tour Moses Lake promotions. She's the one that got me started on doing the videos on boating accesses and fishing on Moses Lake. This time we did a segment on John E. Calbon Island, which is the park that is only accessed by boat.

Rollie Schmitt has begun his preparations for the sockeye season on Lake Wenatchee. I helped him move his docks, from the top end of the lake, where they spend the winter, to the anchors in front of his house. He and I have been watching the weather and finally saw a window of calm water and went for it. We had to lever a large log from the ramp when we launched his 14 footer from Dickenson's beach. He picked me up from the shore on his beach and with his dog Roxie along,

HISTORIC PHOTOS of IDAHO PANHANDLE

U.S. Highway 10

In many ways, railroads and steamboats defined the early history of north Idaho. As the automobile became more and more popular, that began to change. In 1913, the Idaho State Legislature created the State Highway Commission, which adopted a state highway system. Route No.2, named the Idaho Pacific Highway and later U.S. Highway 10, ran across northern from Montana to Washington. It was completed in 1916. This photo shows an automobile on Highway 10 in the early 1920s. By that time, there were seven automobile dealers, fifteen garages and seven service station in Kootenai County. The north-south highway was completed from Sandpoint to the Utah border in 1924.

CHASE ELLIOTT BREAKS DROUGHT WITH VICTORY AT ECHOPARK | By Reid Spencer

HAMPTON, Ga. (June 29, 2025) – Timing his pass on the last lap to perfection, Georgia native Chase Elliott charged past Brad Keselowski and held off the driver of the No. 6 Ford to win Saturday night's Quaker State 400 at Echo Park Speedway.

The popular victory in the first event of the NASCAR Cup Series' In-Season Challenge broke a 44-race drought for Elliott dating to last year's win at Texas Motor Speedway. The win was the second at EchoPark for the driver of the No. 9 Hendrick Motorsports Chevrolet and the 20th of his career.

Elliott crossed the finish line 0.168 seconds ahead of Keselowski and 0.170 seconds in front of teammate and third-place finisher Alex Bowman.

The 29-year-old from Dawsonville, Ga., advanced to the second round of the five-race in-season tournament, eliminating first-round opponent Austin Dillon, who finished 20th.

In a race that featured 46 lead changes among 13 drivers, Elliott got a welcome push from Bowman on the final two laps, stranding Keselowski with no help for a final charge.

"Unbelievable... unbelievable. How about that? Are you kidding me?" Elliott said with an uncharacteristic display of emotion. "I've never in my life... This is unbelievable. Thank you guys so much."

In the closing laps, Elliott was quick to seize the opportunity that came his way.

"Well, I just think that, honestly, all the cards fell on the right places there those last couple laps," he acknowledged. "What a crazy race, man. I don't know if y'all had fun, but it was wild from my seat. I'm so glad we got to run that thing out there to the end."

Keselowski led 46 laps, including circuits 255-259 of 260, and advanced past 21st-place finisher Kyle Busch in the In-Season Challenge, but he had no defense for Elliott's final push.

"The 9 [Elliott] just had the 48 [Bowman] behind him giving him a huge push, and there was nothing I could do to cover that," Keselowski said.

Tyler Reddick came home fourth, followed by Erik Jones. Ricky Stenhouse Jr., Zane Smith, Ty Dillon, Chris Buescher and Carson Hocevar completed the top 10.

The 18th event of the Cup Series regular season got off to a slow start that belied the intense action that would come later in the proceedings. A delay for a light rain stopped the race for 14 minutes, 34 seconds after 36 laps, with Joey Logano out front for the entire stint after starting from the pole.

Next up for the series is the July 6 race on the streets of Chicago.

PROCK, ASHLEY, REED, HALL SCOOP UP WINS AT NORWALK | From NHRA.com

NORWALK, Ohio (June 29, 2025) – Funny Car points leader Austin Prock won back-to-back races for the second time this year for John Force Racing, taking down Matt Hagan in the final round of the 19th annual Summit Racing Equipment NHRA Nationals on Sunday at Summit Motorsports Park.

Justin Ashley (Top Fuel), Cory Reed (Pro Stock) and John Hall (Pro Stock Motorcycle) also won the 10th of 20 races during the 2025 NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series season.

Prock went 4.064-seconds at 318.54 mph in his 12,000-horsepower Cornwell Quality Tools Chevrolet SS to slip past Hagan's 4.099, as the points leader earned his fourth win of the 2025 campaign.

"It was definitely special, you know, the energy was definitely in a better place this year," Prock said. "But to get it done with the Force family back in the house, that that was a big deal."

"Last weekend was huge and this weekend was really big for the Force family and really big for Cornwell Tools."

Speaking of back-to-back wins, Top Fuel's Justin Ashley continues to roll, as the young phenom picked up his second consecutive victory, this time going 3.931 at 317.34 to hold off Clay Millican.

It's the first career win in Norwalk for Ashley, who has gotten red-hot over the past couple months, advancing to six final rounds at the past seven races. He's now won consecutive races as well, pulling to within 77 points of leader Tony Stewart.

"It's very exciting to get my first win here," Ashley said. "Norwalk means a lot to me personally. My father (Mike) won in Funny Car here in 2007, and I ever since we started racing in Top Fuel, it was a dream of mine to win right here and that's what we did today."

In Pro Stock, Cory Reed picked up his first career NHRA win in a magical moment, taking down teammate Dallas Glenn in the final round with a run of 6.648 at 207.30 in his J&A Service Chevrolet Camaro.

This will certainly be the most memorable, as Reed has made an incredible transition to the Pro Stock ranks, switching from Pro Stock Motorcycle to Pro Stock last year.

Reed was a spectacular .012 on the starting line against line and rolled to the victory and creating a moment he won't soon forget.

"All I know is I got Dallas off the tree, which was a very big accomplishment for myself," Reed said.

Pro Stock Motorcycle's John Hall waited nearly 12 years between wins, but the veteran got the job done on Sunday in Norwalk, chasing down Richard Gadson in the championship round with a run of 6.880 at 196.67 on his American Rebel Beer Buell.

"It's special because you never know if you're going to get another one. I won twice in 2013, including the U.S. Nationals," Hall said.

The NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series returns to action with the Muckleshoot Casino Resort NHRA Northwest Nationals on July 18-20 at Pacific Raceways in Seattle.
