Dave J. Gifford
"The Outdoor Insider"

There are folks fishing for fall salmon below Wanapum Dam, but others are shifting their focus on other fall opportunities. Many popular lakes will close at the end of October, so you had better take advantage of the good fishing available on some of them before you have to wait until next year.

There are several lakes in Grant County that will be attracting anglers' attention before they close at the end of October. Two in particular are Park and Blue Lakes. These are very popular with trout anglers, but this time of year you may see more people fishing for perch. Both of these lakes have been known to produce excellent catches of large perch this time of year. Anglers will also start looking for perch on Moses Lake. The area near the I-90 Bridge is one of the better places to find perch, and it's possible to get them from the shore as well as from boats. I will test the waters here from shore and if I find good numbers of them, I will recruit friends to fish here from a boat and also explore some other spots on the lake. The area near south end of Gaileys Island had big schools of fat perch last season. The crappie fishing was outstanding last year on Moses Lake, too. I am also getting reports of very good fishing for perch of unusually large size at Fish Lake, near Lake Wenatchee. I plan to see how big they are very soon. This week's photo is of me with an example of the size of perch that were being caught last year on Moses Lake. I was fishing from shore below the I-90 Bridge.

Families with youngsters interested in learning about hunting and fishing should mark their calendars for Saturday, September 13th. The Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife is inviting families to attend a free event to celebrate National Hunting and Fishing Day at the North Central Washington Gun Club. There will be a wide range of activities that offer hands on experiences that include rod and reel casting, archery practice, 20-gauge shotgun shooting, and air rifle shooting. There will also be many displays and conservation partner booths to visit. Certified hunter education instructors, master hunters and shooting range safety officers will be on site. They will provide training guidance and promote the importance of hunter safety to ensure a safe environment. There will be a morning session from 10 a.m. to noon, and an afternoon session which runs from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Those who attend will enjoy free hot dogs and chips, reusable drawstring safety gear bags for youth participants, and door prize drawings and giveaways donated by local and national businesses. The North Central Washington Gun Club is located at 2740 Gun Club Road, in East Wenatchee. The event will be fun for the whole family.

Several boat ramps at Banks Lake have been temporarily unavailable for a scheduled drawdown. The Bureau of Reclamation is lowering the elevation of Banks Lake by 6.2 feet to support fisheries and groundwater replacement objectives. The lower-than-normal reservoir levels could continue through last week. The drawdown had impacted the accessibility of several boat ramps around the lake. The public is advised to exercise caution around the reservoir and lakeshore during this drawdown period due to shallow water and narrower channels. Areas of high concern, such as the Devil's Punchbowl, should be approached with particular caution. This reduction in the lake's elevation occurs annually, from late August through early September. Once fisheries and groundwater replacement objectives are met, the reservoir will be returned to its regular operating level. Word is that the reservoir is filling and should allow launching at most of the boat ramps.

I traveled down below Vantage to check on the activity at the Huntzinger boat launch. The parking area was full, and I did see that although the water level was low, there would be no concern launching here. However, I did notice that bar that is not far from the launch area was very visible and showed in two places. Boaters will want to watch out for this as they make their run down river. Anglers should always be cautious when boating on the Columbia River this time of year. Water levels can fluctuate frequently. I was hoping to see a WDFW fish checker at the site, but no one was there when I arrived or by the time I left. I did see evidence of angler success, though. There were ten fresh carcasses near the ramp, so fish are being caught. I am sure most of the boats are heading down the river to fish off the mouth of Crab Creek. When the Columbia River opens above Priest Rapids Dam this is the most popular destination. I have fished here many times over the past 20 years or more. Last year, while fishing with my friend James Lebow we landed a small king. We had success trolling with Super Baits, along with a bunch of other boats in the area.

When I was checking on the launch sites below Vantage I also drove Schwana to see how many boats were fishing off the mouth of Crab Creek. Although it was about 10:30 or so there were still a half dozen boats trolling in this area, and I could also see a few more fishing near the trestle and another even further upriver. I had stopped at the Huntzinger launch and the launch at Wanapum Dam, and at both locations I noticed a sign about an upcoming salmon derby. The 10th Annual Steve Koziol Memorial Salmon Derby is scheduled for Saturday, September 13th. Fishing starts at 6 a.m. and ends at 2 p.m. The weight in is at 3 at the Wanapum Dam Park. There will be prizes for the top five fish, one called the Lock Jaw, and there will be lots of raffles, too. The entry fee is forty dollars, and kids under 12 are free. From the sign it appears that the IBEW Local #77 is putting on the event, and there are a bunch of local sponsors supporting it. To sign up for the salmon derby, send an email to cole1975@gmail.com or Jamie Gifford at jgifford831@gmail.com.

HISTORIC PHOTOS of IDAHO PANHANDLE

Coeur d'Alene Inn

This 1890s winter scene of Coeur d'Alene was photographed near 2nd Street looking east up Sherman Avenue. The large wooden building on the right is the Coeur d'Alene Inn. The original structure, built in 1880, by James Smith was called the Lake Side Inn. It was one of the first hotels in Coeur d'Alene. After major reconstruction in the early 1890s the Coeur d'Alene Inn was the main hotel in Coeur d'Alene until the Hotel Idaho was constructed in 1905. The Coeur d'Alene Inn was in operation until 1913.

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

You might be anxious to say what's on your mind this week, Aries. Words are on the tip of your tongue and you aren't afraid of letting them fly. Expect some feedback from others.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

Make sure you are taking care of yourself as well as you are taking care of others, Taurus. Handle any tasks that require a lot of brain power first, then move on to something fun.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21

Do your thing this week and don't worry about how others feel about it, Gemini. Take control of an issue when you see that something needs to get done.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22

You are thinking clearly this week, Cancer. Do your best with the tools you are given right now. You might need to direct others, but generally let them do their own thing.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23

You do not need an invitation to speak your mind, Leo. Express yourself how you see fit and give others plenty of opportunity to have their say as well. The conversation will flow.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, there is a great deal of power behind your thoughts, so use it wisely. Take this energy to work and see if you can channel it to your professional benefit.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

Libra, you are not going to meet new people if you stay indoors all of the time. Get out there and try something new. You can bond with others over an activity or a hobby.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

Scorpio, don't waste your time this week by tiptoeing around. Throw caution to the wind and engage in activities that will provide solid opportunities for growth.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

A powerful force is guiding your actions this week, Sagittarius. Utilize this as motivation to complete an important task.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

Be confident in your thoughts and actions, Capricorn. If you don't believe in what you are saying, how can you convince others to back your efforts?

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, someone is bound to say something meaningful to you if you keep an open ear to all conversation around you. Speak less and listen more for the time being.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20

Pisces, ideas and influences from others can transform your thinking. That can help propel you out of the pattern of actions that may be holding you back.

'We the People' - the opening words of the Preamble to our U.S. Constitution--affirm that our government exists to serve it's citizens. It is clear that our Constitution stands as one of our nation's most significant legacies! The tradition of celebrating the Constitution began with the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR).

In 1955, the DAR petitioned Congress to designate September 17-23 of each year as Constitution Week. This resolution was adopted by Congress and signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower on August 2, 1956.

The purposes were clear: 1) Emphasize citizen's responsibilities for protecting and defending the Constitution. 2) Inform people that the Constitution is the basis for America's great heritage and the foundation for our way of life.

1. How often does the word "democracy" appear in the Constitution? (It doesn't)
2. Which state is misspelled? (Pennsylvania)
3. What foreign language is used? (Latin)
4. How many words are in the original Constitution? (4,400)
5. How many states had to ratify the Constitution before it became the law of the land? (Nine)
6. Which state did not send deputies to the Constitutional Convention? (Rhode Island)
7. What are the first 10 amendments known as? (The Bill of Rights)
8. How long did it take to frame the Constitution? (Less than 100 working days)
9. Where did the Constitutional Convention meet and when? (Philadelphia PA - 1787)
10. Was Thomas Jefferson a member of the Constitutional Convention? (No, he was American Minister to France at the time.)

NSDAR is committed to encouraging study and educating the public about the nation's Constitution and the men who framed it.

September GARDENING TIPS

Master Gardeners of Spokane County

PLANTING & DIVIDING

Plant spring-flowering bulbs. The rule of thumb is to plant bulbs 2.5 times deeper than they are wide. You can plant and transplant trees and shrubs as well as dig & divide perennial herbs and flowers.

GARDEN MAINTENANCE

To protect tender plants from the damage of early frost and extend the harvest for veggies, cover beds with burlap, boxes, blankets or even newspaper! Prune shrubs and vines to allow airflow in the winter.

LAWN & GRASS

The first 2 weeks are an excellent time to put in a new lawn. Cool weather with rainfall is ideal for grass seeds to germinate and become established. This is also a good time to core aerate existing lawns.

FIREWOOD PREP

Green firewood can harbor beetles that pose threats to garden trees. Eliminate beetles by piling wood into stacks no larger than 4x4x4. Cover with clear plastic or bury the edges and tape the seams.

FIRE CANCELS NORTHPORT RACING, AUTISM FUNDRAISER

NORTHPORT — With the Crown Creek Fire a threat to the town of Northport, racing officials cancelled racing at Northport International Raceway and with it the September 6, Luke Powers Race for Autism.

A specific date to rerun the event has not been determined but it could be Sept. 20.

As of Sept. 7 the Crown Creek Fire had burned some 13,000 acres just south of the town.

ST. LOUIS POLE WINNER HAMLIN DELIVERS TOYOTA'S 200TH VICTORY

By Reid Spencer /NASCAR Wire Service

MADISON, Ill. (September 7, 2025) — In a race that featured a strange brew of divergent strategies, pole winner Denny Hamlin claimed his series-best fifth victory of the season and advanced to the Round of 12 of the NASCAR Cup Series Playoffs.

Finishing 1.620 seconds ahead of Joe Gibbs Racing teammate Chase Briscoe in front of a sellout crowd, Hamlin won Sunday's Enjoy Illinois 300 at World Wide Technology Raceway to earn his first win at the 1.25-mile track and 59th of his career—11th all-time and one win short of Kevin Harvick in 10th.

Hamlin also delivered the 200th victory for Toyota. After taking the checkered flag, the 44-year-old driver had some choice words for his detractors in the grandstands.

"You can either get on the bandwagon or get run over by it," Hamlin told the crowd, generating another chorus of boos.

But the reality is that Hamlin announced emphatically his stature as a serious contender for the championship that has eluded him during his 20-year Cup career.

"Yeah, it's so big for everyone at Toyota, Joe Gibbs Racing," Hamlin said. "Progressive Toyota was great there at the end. So happy to get this victory. My dad's not feeling well at home. Just shout-out to him..."

"Fantastic day. Man, couldn't be better." Before the race, grand marshal Bill Murray, who typically plays in Hamlin's annual golf tournament, leaned into the No. 11 Toyota and talked to the driver.

"Yeah, I just told him to talk to the guys behind me and make sure they stay behind me the rest of the race," Hamlin quipped. "We made that happen."

Both Hamlin and Briscoe pitted early during a cycle of green-flag pit stops with roughly 65 laps left in the race. After Ty Dillon's contact with the outside wall caused the 10th and final caution on Lap 209—effectively negating the strategy of drivers who were stretching fuel to the end of the event—Hamlin passed Brad Keselowski for the lead moments after the subsequent restart on Lap 216 and held it the rest of the way.

Slowed by an issue with the left rear tire on pit road, Briscoe recovered to secure the runner-up spot.

The second race of the 2025 Playoffs widened the chasm between the top 12 in the standings and the four drivers below the current elimination line.

Austin Cindric came home 19th and held onto 12th on the Playoff grid, 11 points ahead of 13th-place Austin Dillon. Four-time winner Shane van Gisbergen finished 25th and fell 15 points below the elimination line.

At the opposite end of the spectrum, other Playoff contenders solidified their positions in the standings. Briscoe, already exempt into the next round on the strength of last Sunday's win at Darlington, won the first stage.

Bubba Wallace took the honors in Stage 2 on the way to an eighth-place result. Chase Elliott, Ryan Blaney and Joey Logano ran third, fourth and fifth, respectively, as both Hendrick Motorsports and Team Penske reasserted their strength after disappointing performances at Darlington.

For Logano, the inaugural Cup winner at Gateway in 2022, the top-five finish was his fourth straight, a feat no other driver in the series has been able to accomplish.

Christopher Bell ran consistently in the top 10, finished seventh and leaves the St. Louis-area track 32 points above the elimination line. Hendrick Motorsports drivers Kyle Larson and William Byron were 11th and 12th, respectively, and are third and sixth in the Playoff standings, needing only to avert disaster at Bristol to advance the Round of 12.

All the championship competitors in Top Fuel, Funny Car, Pro Stock and Pro Stock Motorcycle will qualify twice on Friday and Saturday, with eliminations at the key playoff stop set for Sunday. Add in the wild, unpredictable and thrilling spectacle that is four-wide racing, and it's a race no fan should miss.

Last year's NHRA Carolina Nationals saw Antron Brown (Top Fuel), Austin Prock (Funny Car), Dallas Glenn (Pro Stock) and Matt Smith (Pro Stock Motorcycle) each claiming wins. This season's race will again be broadcast on FS1, including live coverage of eliminations beginning at 12 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 21.

Other pieces of interest, because of the camshaft & low vacuum, the car has an automatic vacuum pump mounted under the car which supplies vacuum to the power brakes. Battery located in trunk is on Interstate solid state battery. Master shut off switch located at the rear of the right front fender under the car about 8" down. This was a body off 100% rust removal pro-built car. All new glass: side windows, front & rear. Has a separate key for trunk. Paint color: NorthStar Ford Poppy Red with black top. Single stage supplier, Post Falls Auto Paint. Rear wheels are 8" reversed steel wheels, front wheels are 7" reserved steel wheels, 3" back space on wheels, 7" wheel would need a 1" wheel spacer, $35,000 or best offer. For appointment, email Casey: atamatic@gmail.com

FOUR-WIDE RACING IN COUNTDOWN CHAMPIONSHIP SET FOR ZMAX DRAGWAY | From NHRA Media

CONCORD, N.C. (Sept. 4, 2025) – For the first time, the NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series Countdown to the Championship playoffs will feature a four-wide race, when one of the most unique spectacles in motorsports comes to ZMAX Dragway for the NHRA 4-Wide Carolina Nationals on Sept. 19-21.

The Bellagio of Dragstrips has hosted several historical moments over the years and a four-wide playoff race will certainly add to the list. The unique four-wide format always brings another layer of intensity to the mix, with nearly 50,000-horsepower on display at once, and the added element of a Countdown to the Championship race makes for a must-see weekend.

All the championship competitors in Top Fuel, Funny Car, Pro Stock and Pro Stock Motorcycle will qualify twice on Friday and Saturday, with eliminations at the key playoff stop set for Sunday. Add in the wild, unpredictable and thrilling spectacle that is four-wide racing, and it's a race no fan should miss.

Last year's NHRA Carolina Nationals saw Antron Brown (Top Fuel), Austin Prock (Funny Car), Dallas Glenn (Pro Stock) and Matt Smith (Pro Stock Motorcycle) each claiming wins. This season's race will again be broadcast on FS1, including live coverage of eliminations beginning at 12 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 21.

Ask us how we can help YOU! 509-220-8018 | nwmotorsportsreport@gmail.com
