October GARDENING TIPS

Master Gardeners of Spokane County

SEASON EXTENDERS

Plan ahead and plant late season bloomers and color including asters, mums, ornamental grasses, trees/shrubs, & fall blooming bulbs. Change out your planters using fall blooming plants including ornamental cabbage.

LEAVES

Leaves grace the trees all summer, then turn into beautiful colors in the fall. They are also useful for mulch, weed suppression in veggie gardens and pathways, compost and insulation.

BIRD FEEDERS

Migratory and winter resident birds will appreciate it if you repair damaged bird feeders, keep the food fresh and clean, hang suet, and keep water sources open & clean.

TREES

Conifer needles closest to the trunk will drop in the fall. Evergreens provide year long interest and shelter for small animals and birds. Keep watering your trees until the ground freezes. Larches turn yellow and drop needles.

CREATURE FEATURE

LIONHEAD RABBITS

The Lionhead Rabbit is one of the newer breeds available, only being recognized since 2002. It is a smaller breed and gets its name from the mane of thick, long fur that surrounds its head. Like most rabbits, the Lionhead is a docile, friendly and easily trainable pet. Their care is similar to other types of rabbits, with a few additions to grooming.

Dave Johnson
"The Outdoor Insider"

We are blessed with many clear and sunny days in the fall here in North Central Washington State, and I try to plan as many fishing trips as possible when the forecast calls for these conditions. I have had some wonderful days enjoying the warm sunshine and good fishing. I am surprised at times, when the weather turns cold and rainy, that the fishing is still very good!

I had a video project to do for the City of Moses Lake, and last Wednesday seemed to be the perfect day for it. The forecast was for sun and calm weather, and my friend James Lebow was available to help me out. He met me at Blue Heron Park, and we took his boat from there to Cascade Park to show people the facilities there and what a great place it was to start a tour on the "Water Trail" on Moses Lake. Cascade Park is just one of several good launching spots for those who enjoy power boating, paddling a canoe, kayak or paddleboard. It is fairly protected and there is an "on the water park."

John E. Calbon Island Park at the mouth of the bay. I also showed Peninsula Park on the west shore and Montlake Park on the east shore. Both are great places to explore Moses Lake by small watercraft. We observed a beaver swimming across the lake, a muskrat, a blue heron and other wildlife while we were on the water. We even stopped at the I-90 Bridge for a while and caught some whopper crappie. This week's photo is of one of the crappie we caught while there.

I often pull off Highway 2 on my way home from Rufus Woods, Banks Lake, or other destinations in this area, at Jack's Resort on Jameson Lake. I want to check on the fishing on the lake, of course, and it's an excuse to buy a couple of slices of pie. This habit spans at least 15 years. The pies that Ginger makes are well worth the seven mile drive off the highway. I get my wife her favorite coconut cream and I get the chocolate-peanut butter cream for myself. Ginger always greets me and knows exactly what I want and in addition to the delicious pies she gives me the fishing report. Unlike Banks Lake, which was vacant of anglers, there were bank anglers on the shores of Jameson Lake, and I saw at least one boat. Many anglers know that the month of October is a very good time to fish for the rainbow that inhabit Jameson. Ginger was excited to report that a pair of anglers had been in that morning with limits of rainbow that ranged in size from 1.5 to 2.5 pounds. Jameson continues to be a great late season trout fishery.

On my way back from Moses Lake last week, I stopped by Rocky Ford Creek, near Ephrata. I will often visit this stream when I'm in the area to check on the water conditions this time of year. Fly fishing Rocky Ford is one of my favorite late fall and winter fisheries. Like many waters in our region, there is heavy weed growth in the summer months, and it takes some cold weather to clear them out. As I suspected, there was a blanket of weeds along the shores of Rocky Ford, and although we are starting to see some very cold and even freezing temperatures, it will be a while before The Ford is really fishable. There is open water in the middle of the stream, but good luck getting one of the big trout over to the bank to release it. I walked out on the bridge at the upper parking lot, and I just saw one big rainbow near it. Usually, I see several. They must be in the deepest, coolest water right now. I did notice several small trout that I assume are from a recent plant. I will keep you posted on the conditions at Rocky Ford.

A couple of years ago I met Beau Harman at the middle net pens on Rufus Woods. He said he was a big fan and if I ever wanted to visit him in the town of Curlew, I would be welcome. I took him up on his offer. My wife and I first fished the Kettle River probably 15 years ago, and I have made several trips there since then, and I decided to visit Beau and fish the Kettle River last Friday and Saturday. After getting settled into the trailer Beau had set up for me, I made a bee line to my favorite fishing hole with my fly rod. It was a terrific reunion with the river and its trout. It was sunny and warm, and I caught and released about 25 fish that were a mix of rainbow and whitefish and one brown trout. Beau and I had a nice dinner in Republic and the next morning I woke up to a cold and rainy day. I still wanted to try my favorite hole, and I am glad I did. I landed about 15 fish that were all larger than the ones I got the day before!

When I was on the way home from fishing the Kettle River, I stopped at the Northrup boat launch on Banks Lake. I wanted to see if the docks were still in. They were and maybe for the first time ever, I saw there wasn't a single truck and trailer in the parking lot. This indicated that even the hardest of anglers weren't going to fish on this cold and rainy day. I did see Aulin Smith, who works for the WDFW and checks on angler success on several bodies of water here in Central Washington. He said that "most likely" the docks would be pulled at the end of October, and I also assumed that the cleaning station near the boat ramp would be shut down for the winter. Aulin also mentioned that the walleye fishing had slowed down in recent days, probably due to the sharp drop in temperatures. I told him I was surprised that there were no anglers fishing for whitefish. He said that the whitefish will often disperse from the popular fishing area in Devils Lake, and we agreed that they would be out in force once again when the ice gets safe enough to drill holes in Banks Lake.

WEEKLY Horoscopes for October 23 - 29

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

Timing is everything, Aries. Even though you are anxious to start something big, this might not be the right moment for it. You'll benefit from stepping back to reassess.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

You are craving comfort, but growth is just outside of your range, Taurus. This week, a financial focus pays off. Don't ignore your gut when it comes to a financial matter.

GEMINI – May 22/Jun 21

You may be charming and magnetic right now, Gemini, but are you paying attention to what other people are saying? It's time to listen more than you're speaking.

CANCER – Jun 22/Jul 22

Emotions are running strong right now, Cancer. It is alright to be passionate. Your intuition will be heightened, but do your best to take a measured approach in the days ahead.

LEO – Jul 23/Aug 23

Leo, it's important to remember that, while the spotlight loves you, not every stage is meant for a solo. Share the attention midweek and others will love you even more for it.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, perfection can wait right now, even if you are craving ultimate order. Embrace progress even if it doesn't come in a polished form. Say yes to a new opportunity.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

Libra, you are balancing a dozen things. This seems like a pattern for you, but avoid overextending yourself. Speak up and advocate for your needs.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

You are focused and quiet working behind the scenes this week, Scorpio. Some people need to be flashy with fanfare, but that's not you right now. Relish in the quiet success.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

You might be fired up with fresh ideas, Sagittarius. Just be sure your vision is rooted in reality. Write it down and stay open to feedback. It's best to avoid spontaneity right now.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

Capricorn, you're bound to tire out if you don't pace yourself. Delegate things when you can, especially by the end of the week. A surprise compliment at work brings joy.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, let your curiosity lead you somewhere new. Someone different from your usual crowd could offer unique insight that you hadn't considered previously.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20

Pisces, creative energy is high right now, especially around Wednesday. You're close to a creative breakthrough, but you might need a practical play to get there.

NWSLMS RETURNS TO SOUTH SOUND SPEEDWAY From Northwest Super Late Model Series Media Relations

Spokane, WA – (Oct. 20, 2025): The Northwest Super Late Model Series presented by KNOTTICAL Marine announced the return to South Sound Speedway (WA) on August 1st for the track's traditional marquee event of the season. The 28th annual running of the South Sound/ Miller 200 will be known as the "Weatherguard 200" in 2026.

The series last visited South Sound Speedway in 2021 for the "South Sound 200" won by Trenton Moriarity over a 24 car field. This will be the eighth visit to the facility for the NWSLMS and the fourth for the traditional 200 lap event.

The NWSLMS visited the west side of Washington in 2025 with the "Summer Showdown 200", and will return to Rochester, WA this summer for another big 200 lap affair.

"The series is excited to return to South Sound Speedway", NWSLMS director Dan Garber stated. "They have a beautiful facility located in the Pacific Northwest that we love to be a part of, and we are excited for the opportunity to put on a great show for the fans. Thank you to Nick (Behn) and his staff for allowing us another opportunity to bring a great field of Super Late drivers to his facility, for the 2026 "Weatherguard 200".

The popular 3/8 mile oval is one of only a limited number of paved short tracks in the Western United States to feature Super Late Model racing on a regular basis. Ethan Ebert was the Powersports NW Super Late Model track champion in 2025. Track operator Nick Behn is looking forward to adding to an already prestigious event in 2026.

"South Sound Speedway is excited to announce the return of the NWSLMS to headline the "Weatherguard Roofing 200" weekend August 1st. You won't want to miss this one," Behn added.

The Northwest Super Late Model Series will head into its' 13th season of operation in 2026. Among the previous NWSLMS winners at South Sound include Mitch Kleyn, Brittney Zamora, Alan Cress (2), Max Schroeder, Austin Thom, and Trenton Moriarity. On August 1st, another name or repeat winner will be added to the list.

JOHN FORCE RACING SIGNS JOSH HART TO DRIVE ITS TOP FUEL DRAGSTER | From John Force Racing

Josh Hart will fill the seat formerly occupied by Brittany Force, who announced she will be stepping away from competition at the conclusion of the season to focus on starting a family. John Force Racing photo

John Force Racing has signed multi-time NHRA U.S. Nationals winner and two-time NHRA Top Fuel winner Josh Hart to a multiyear contract to drive for the 23 time world championship organization beginning with the 2026 season.

John Force Racing has signed multi-time NHRA U.S. Nationals winner and two-time NHRA Top Fuel winner Josh Hart to a multiyear contract to drive for the 23 time world championship organization beginning with the 2026 NHRA Gatornationals in Gainesville, Fla., March 5-8, which kicks off the National Hot Rod Association's 75th anniversary season.

The Huntington, Ind., native will step into the cockpit vacated by two-time NHRA Top Fuel champion Brittany Force, who announced Sept. 12 she will be stepping away from competition at the conclusion of the season to focus on starting a family.

The team will continue to be led by crew chiefs Dave Grubnic and John Collins, with primary sponsorship coming from Hart's Ocala, Florida-based Burnyzz Speed Shop.

"I have always said 'Anything's possible,' and this opportunity proves that statement. I want to thank John Force and the entire John Force Racing team for being open to this endeavor," said Hart. "No one can replace Brittany Force and what she has done for the sport and this organization."

Hart will become just the third driver to race in the highly competitive Top Fuel class under the John Force Racing banner. He will join Force and current John Force Racing Funny Car driver Austin Prock on a short list of Top Fuel competitors.

"I have been talking to Josh for a while, and every time we talked, it just made sense for our team to add someone like him," said John Force, CEO and 16 time NHRA Funny Car champion. "He is a family guy, and he is a businessman."

Hart started his own race team for the 2021 season and earned the first of his two NHRA Top Fuel victories in his series debut at the Gatornationals.

He won again later that year at the NHRA Carolina Nationals at zMax Dragway near Charlotte, N.C., and won the 2023 NHRA Top Fuel All-Star Callout in Gainesville.

Hart is currently 10th in the 2025 NHRA Mission Foods Drag Racing Series Top Fuel points standings with two races remaining in the Countdown to the Championship.

His NHRA career began in 2011, racing in multiple Sportsman categories before earning his Top Alcohol Dragster license in 2015. Hart won three Top Alcohol Dragster NHRA national events, including consecutive U.S. Nationals titles (2018-19), and eight NHRA regional events from 2017-2019 before earning his Top Fuel license in 2020.

BRISCOE LOCKS UP CHAMPIONSHIP 4 SPOT WITH OVERTIME VICTORY AT TALLADEGA

By Holly Cain, NASCAR Wire Service

TALLADEGA, Ala. (Oct. 19, 2025)– In a typically dramatic push to the Talladega (Ala.) Superspeedway checkered flag, Joe Gibbs Racing's Chase Briscoe made a last lap pass on the frantic field to claim victory in Sunday's YellaWood 500 NASCAR Cup Series Playoff race and earn his first-ever career shot at the season title.

The 29 year old Indiana-native Briscoe will join his JGR teammate Denny Hamlin, who won last week at Las Vegas, leaving the final two positions in the Championship 4 to be decided in next week's regular season finale at Martinsville (Va.) Speedway.

Briscoe thanked another JGR teammate, however, 23 year old Ty Gibbs for the push forward on the final lap Sunday that resulted in his first ever superspeedway win .145 second over Front Row Motorsports' driver Todd Gilliland and Gibbs, neither who are among the current eight-driver Playoff field.

The runner-up showing was a career best for Gilliland. 23XI Racing's Bubba Wallace and Haas Factory Team's Cole Custer rounded out the top-five.

"Ty Gibbs, just an incredible teammate there," said an emotional Briscoe, who stood on his No. 19 JGR Toyota waving his arms to the cheering crowd "I honestly would not have won that race without Ty. It was an amazing team effort. I can't believe I won a superspeedway race. I've never done it at any level."

Another JGR driver, Christopher Bell joined Briscoe as the only other Playoff competitor to finish among the top 10 Sunday, crossing the line eighth in the frantic three-wide four rows deep finish that has long characterized the 2.66 mile Talladega high-banks – NASCAR's largest track. With Hamlin and Briscoe in the title race thanks to victories, Bell now holds the top points position, 37 points above the cutoff line.

As good of a day as it was for the Gibbs team to be able to claim half the championship race eligibility and position Bell atop the points standings, it was a disappointing afternoon for the other two organizations also racing for a shot at the title - Hendrick Motorsports and Team Penske.

Hendrick had two cars running among the top five for the overtime restart only to have Kyle Larson drop back from the lead after running out of fuel. William Byron get spun out from behind only yards in front of the finish line while running top 10. They finished 25th (Byron) and 26th (Larson).

Larson is ranked fourth, a point below Bell in the standings – 36 points above the cutoff line. Byron – the regular season champion – is now fifth, 36 points below the line.

Penske's two Playoff drivers, reigning series champion Joey Logano and 2023 series champ Ryan Blaney also experienced similar late-race frustration after positioning themselves up front in the waning laps. Logano's No. 22 Ford actually led the most laps (35) on the day and turned in the longest single stint out front (16 laps) in a race that featured an incredible 77 lead changes among 27 drivers.

Ultimately neither could move forward in the closing pair of laps, however. Logano finished 16th and Blaney was 23rd – after both had to pit during the overtime caution period to top off on fuel.

Sunday's results leave Logano ranked sixth among the eight Playoff drivers, 38 points below the cutoff line. Blaney is seventh, 47 points back. Both now need a victory at Martinsville to return to the championship race. Blaney has won the last two Playoff races at the half-mile Martinsville track and Logano won it in 2018.

The final round to set the 2025 Playoff field is Sunday afternoon's Xfinity 500 at Martinsville Speedway (2 p.m. ET, NBC, MRN SiriusXM NASCAR Radio).
